Standing Ovation
For Gov.-General

WASHINGTON (CP)—A standing ovation from members of both Houses of Congress greeted Canada's governor-general today as he told a joint session of the two Houses the United States can depend on Canadians as faithful friends and comrades.

In the first address delivered by a Canadian governor-general in the legislative chamber in 17 years Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey was interrupted eight times by applause as he assured the senators and congressmen that there is no difference in the fundamental aims of Canada and the United States, though they may occasionally differ on details.

Mr. Massey said Canada believes as the United States does "that the problems of our time cannot be solved by military strength alone."

INFINITE PATIENCE

"The line can be held only by the deployment of force but the objective—peace—can be won only by the quality of infinite patience. In our collaboration, we may not always agree on every detail of the plans we must discuss together but there is no difference between us on the fundamental aims which we pursue; we may differ now and then on the 'hows' but never on the 'whys'." (See page 25 for partial text of Governor-General's speech.)

The governor-general was escorted into the House of Representatives by a committee of both Houses and was welcomed at the rostrum by Speaker Joseph Martin (Rep.-Mass.) of the House and Vice-President Nixon, Speaker of the Senate. The chamber was well filled with congressmen, senators and members of the cabinet and of the Supreme Court.

In his brief introductory remarks, Martin described his guest as "the governor-general of a great people—a people friendly to us."

PLACES WREATH

Before his visit to the House, the governor-general drove to Mount Vernon to place a wreath at the tomb of George Washington and to Arlington Cemetery, where he placed wreaths at the tomb of the unknown soldier and the Canadian memorial cross, commemorating Americans who fell while fighting in the Canadian forces during the First World War.

The governor-general was present at the dedication of the memorial cross in the late 1920s, while he was serving as Canada's first minister in Washington.

Canada Will Have Atomic Power Plant Within 10 Years

EDMONTON (CP)—One of Canada's nuclear authorities says it is hoped this country will have its first atomic power plant within the next eight or 10 years.

Dr. David A. Keys, vice-president of the National Research Council of Canada and scientific adviser to the president of Atomic Energy of Canada, Ltd., said in an interview Monday it is hoped to have a pilot atomic plant but this has not yet been authorized by the federal government.

He said a small plant would cost about $10,000,000 and would probably have a capacity of 2,000 watts. It would probably be near the Chalk River, Ont., atomic reactor.

Ford to Lay Off 1,542

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Ford Motor Company of Canada announced today it will lay off 1,542 production employees at its Windsor plant May 12 because of a sharp decline in truck sales and the transfer of passenger car operations to Oakville, Ont.

OAKALLA ESCAPEE HUNTED ALL NIGHT

Exhausted 'Potential Murderer' Surrenders From Burnaby Bush

VANCOUVER (CP)—A shot-punctured, all-night chase through bushlands ended today with the recapture of Lawrence Corbett, escaped prisoner.

The 18-year-old gunman, branded in court as a "potential murderer," escaped from Oakalla prison farm in suburban Burnaby at 2 p.m. Monday. He had 15 hours' freedom.

Twice during the night as police trailed Corbett through the bush in the eastern section of the city they fired on the fugitive, who disappeared in the darkness.

Surrounded near the home of his grandmother, Corbett surrendered without a fight. He was wet and exhausted when taken from the rain-soaked bush.

Convicted of a series of armed holdups, he was recently sentenced to Oakalla to a term of two years less one day.

Prison officials described him as "emotionally disturbed" after he learned the suspected slayer of his 12-year-old sister was held in Oakalla.

MOUNTIE HQ WON'T MOVE FROM CITY TO MAINLAND

RCMP headquarters will stay in Victoria.

Attorney-General Robert Bonner said today that while consideration had been given moving provincial headquarters to Vancouver, the proposal was dropped as his department must have fast and ready access to RCMP files.

It was thought originally the RCMP could combat crime more effectively if centrally located on the lower mainland.

Man Who Drowned in Strait Identified; Name Withheld

A man who drowned off a Dallas Road beach Monday has been identified by city police as an eastern Canadian, who has been unemployed here for five months.

Relatives have been notified, but until an acknowledgment is received here, the name will not be released. This may take a couple of days," according to Police Chief John Blackstock.

The man, who is 25, slightly built and dark-haired, drowned before the eyes of Mrs. W. J. MacKenzie, 654 Dallas, while she was watching through field glasses for birds.

RCMP have abandoned search operations due to heavy deposits of seaweed which blinded navy frogmen and fouled draglines. The divers believe the body may never be found if it is trapped in the heavy weeds.

Mrs. MacKenzie called police after she saw a man swimming between two rocky islands just below the Paddon Street intersection with Douglas. She said the man, clad only in shorts, had appeared to be trying to reach the outermost island. He started, turned back halfway, then sank.

City police checked the area and found clothing nearby. A laundry mark on a shirt led police to identification.

Police think that clothing found on the beach the previous night, a coat, socks and shoes, were also owned by the missing swimmer. It is suspected that the man had hidden while police searched the area after the first discovery Sunday night, then spent the night on the beach.

Still-smoking embers from a small fire were also found by police Monday morning when they investigated the drowning report.

TACOMA OFFERS $100,000 FOR WIL BERTH, SAYS PAPER

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Vancouver News-Herald, in a sports page story today, said Tacoma baseball interests were willing to put up $100,000 to take over the orphan Calgary Western International League baseball franchise.

The story said the money was promised by Columbia Breweries and would be devoted to purchase of the franchise and other costs to carry on the 1954 Calgary schedule. Calgary is dropping from the 16-team league due to lack of funds.

Formal presentation of the offer, however, would have to await the return of baseball park owner Ben Cheney from a Mexican vacation, the story said.

Talk o' cuttin' down on th' firemen allus seems t' warm things up.

Somebody should remind th' mayor that with th' new likker arrangements here nobody'll hev t' go t' Harrison Hot Springs anymore.

Don't seem clear whether Mr. Duiles left Geneva fer good or jus' went home fer more ammunition.

NEW KOREA PROPOSAL TO BE OFFERED BY WEST

(From AP and UP Dispatches)

GENEVA—The 16 countries which fought in Korea under the United Nations banner plan to put a compromise proposal on Korea before the Communists this week, a highly informed source said today.

This source said the compromise plan, its details were not given, would be a "very difficult thing" for Russia, Red China and North Korea to turn down.

The Communist reaction to the compromise, it was said, will determine whether there is any real chance of unifying Korea and holding elections in the war-battered peninsula.

Meanwhile a five-man Communist-Viet Minh delegation arrived by air to take part in the Indo-China phase of the conference.

The conference recessed today for two days.

'Cut—Or Close' Fire Chief Told

James Bay Hall May Be Closed Down;
Police Chief Also Told to Cut Staff

Risking recurrences of the Yates Street firehall controversy—a bitter debate for months in 1952—City Council Monday night over-rode Fire Chief Briers and ordered a mandatory reduction in fire department's 1954 budget. Alternatives offered were: Close one of the city's three firehalls or cut fire-fighting staffs.

'RIFT' REPORT MUST WAIT—CHURCHILL

LONDON (UP)—Members of Britain's House of Commons, inquiring into reports of a rift in Anglo-American policy were told today by Prime Minister Winston Churchill today that they must wait until after the Geneva conference for a statement on Indo-China policy.

Reds Grab Another Strongpoint

HANOI (AP)—Renewing their massive infantry assault on Dien Bien Phu—the Communist-led Viet Minh captured a new French strongpoint today on the western side of the besieged northwest Indo-China fortress.

A French high command announcement here said the battered French Union defenders immediately launched a strong counter-attack.

"Bitter combat now is under way," the communique said.

DENIES REPORT

A message from AP correspondent Larry Allen reported a denial from French spokesmen that surrender of the Dien Bien Phu garrison had been demanded by the Viet Minh. In the same vein, the New York Times correspondent at Hanoi said: "It was said that no truce negotiations were taking place with the Viet Minh in Indo-China and that Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap had had not demanded the surrender of Dien Bien Phu."

Man Held in Murder

VANCOUVER (BUP)—Police held a 28-year-old German immigrant today in connection with the death of an elderly man in a Main Street hotel Monday night. The elderly man was identified as Loughie McKinnon but police withheld the name of the immigrant.

Defends UN Policy At Geneva Parley

GENEVA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada today warned the Geneva conference that failure of peace moves in Indo-China may lead the West to consider further collective security measures.

Pearson, providing Canada's first contribution to the general debate on Korea, made a spirited defense of United Nations policy regarding that war-torn peninsula, criticized Communist proposals for a peaceful settlement there and referred briefly to negotiations concerning Indo-China.

At the end of his speech, he referred to the interest expressed by Asian countries which have just met at Colombo in ensuring peace in Indo-China. He added:

"If these peaceful purposes are not achieved by a just, honorable and negotiated settlement, the consequences will be bad, and probably far-reaching.

"Failure here may well necessitate further collective consideration by those who, as a result of such failure, will feel increasingly threatened, of meet that threat. This, in its turn, may harden and make more dangerous the great tragic division in the world....

"The reward for success at Geneva will be great in terms of peaceful progress; but the penalty of failure may be even greater in terms of increasing tensions and the risk of war which would engulf and destroy us all."

Terms Proposal Unfair, Unworkable

The reference to "further collective consideration" almost certainly means that western countries, including Canada, will reconsider their position if negotiations over Indo-China and Korea break down through Communist intransigence.

Discussing Communist proposals on Korea, Pearson made these points:

1. The proposed all-Korean commission suggested by North Korea's foreign minister, Nam Il, would be "completely unworkable, unfair and unacceptable."

2. The proposal by Communist China's Chou En-lai for a commission to bring about repatriation of Chinese and Korean prisoners of war who refused to go home would "serve no useful purpose." This was a dead issue.
3. Chou En-lai's insistence that all foreign military bases in Asian countries should be removed was interesting. "It would be interesting to know," Pearson said, "whether he includes in this sweeping generalization the Russians in Port Arthur."

Pearson, criticizing aspects of the plan advanced here last week by Gen. Nam Il, the North Korean foreign minister, said: "My delegation is not alone in the suspicion that they include words and phrases designed to camouflage a scheme which would bring to Korea the reverse of freedom and independence."

Nam's plan provided for establishment by the North and South Korean governments of a joint commission to plan elections throughout the country.

Backing all United Nations decisions on Korea, Pearson told today's conference plenary session in the Palace of Nations: "The Canadian government has supported, and remains bound by, these United Nations decisions."

NO SUPPORT

"Therefore, we cannot support any proposal which denies their validity, or which would equate at this conference the moral and political status of the United Nations in respect of the Korean question, with those governments which have broken the United Nations charter by taking aggressive military action against the Republic of Korea."

Pearson strongly defended the United States against allegations of "aggressive imperialism" made at this conference by Russia and Communist China.

"As the leader of the delegation of a country which is a neighbor of the most powerful state in the world, I can say with a conviction based on our national experience that the people of the United States are neither aggressive nor imperialist."

CHARLES... perfect gentleman.

HEADS 'YOUNG PRESIDENTS'

David Schine Most-Publicized Private in History of U.S. Army

NEW YORK (AP)—As his father says, G. David Schine always wanted "to be somebody." He is now the most public private in the U.S. Army. Was there ever another private lined up in such a public fracas, viewed by millions, against army generals, against the secretary of the army and, by inference, against the president of the United States, himself?

How many other privates ever had their picture taken with the secretary of the army? How many ever touched off so much discussion, controversy and so many jokes as are sweeping the country these days? As for example, "If Secretary Stevens behaves himself, Schine will give him a week-end pass."

Stevens' testimony raised another intriguing question: What other prospective private could find it in his heart to assure the secretary of the army that he, the secretary, was "doing a good job" that he'd "go a long way," and that, if he'd like help, this prospective private was ready to serve as his special assistant?

At Harvard, Schine majored in political science. Few people there remember him because he was said to be a "loner." Those who do say he was a "playboy with plenty of money and a Cadillac."

SCARLET TUNICS

Queen Guards' Colonel

OTTAWA (CP)—The Queen has consented to be colonel-in-chief of the Regiment of Canadian Guards, defense headquarters said today.

The regiment, formed last October as the senior regiment in the six regiment regular force Canadian infantry, is known simply as the Canadian Guards. The department said the Queen has indicated she favors this name for general use though the official title remains the Regiment of Canadian Guards.

Royal approval has been received for regimental badges, buttons and rank insignia. Ceremonial dress will include scarlet uniforms and black bearskin headress.

A shoulder flash denoting the battalion and regiment will be worn on the battledress. It will be on a white and red background.

Generally speaking, the dress follows the pattern of the British Brigade of Guards.

McCarthy-Army Fight To Go to Bitter End

WASHINGTON (AP)—Efforts to confine the McCarthy-Army hearings to testimony by Senator McCarthy and Army Secretary Stevens collapsed today. Chairman Karl Mundt (Rep.-S.D.), announced the public inquiry would proceed as scheduled "to the bitter end."

Mundt said the sub-committee investigating the controversy had explored in closed meetings Monday night and today "every honorable way" to shorten the hearings. But he said all efforts to agree on a narrowing down of charges and witnesses had failed to bring agreement among all the parties concerned.

Mundt made his announcement after Senator Everett Dirksen (Rep., Ill.) had proposed that testimony be confined to the secretary of the army and McCarthy.

McCarthy said he would withdraw charges against H. Struve Hensel, assistant secretary of defense, with the proviso that only Stevens and McCarthy were to testify in the present hearings. The charges against Hensel would be subject to possible later consideration.

McCarthy's "bill of particulars" in the present controversy asserts that Hensel profited from a private ship supply firm while a navy department procurement official during the Second World War. Hensel's counsel said Hensel would not agree to dropping the charges against him unless McCarthy conceded the charges were in error. McCarthy retorted that he could not agree to that.

Dirksen opened the ninth day of hearings into the McCarthy-army scrap by reviewing proposals he had made secretly in closed meetings of the investigating committee Monday night and this morning.

Senator Henry Jackson (Dem., Wash.) told reporters he and other Democratic members believe that in view of the nature of the charges and counter-charges that "all the parties" to the dispute should testify under oath.

the rides of Baddley Bros. Shows.

There was something for everyone to enjoy.

There were guessing games, displays of furniture, home products, free movies, building material exhibits, information booths, logging equipment shows, a cattle and livestock exhibit, and pamphlets galore.

PHOTOGRAPHS ATTRACT

The Professional Photographers' Association of B.C. display drew visitors like flies. Some of the best pictures taken by B.C. cameramen were on view.

Fish from many strange places, exhibited by the Victoria Aquarium Society, attracted throngs of curious onlookers.

There was a real carnival air about this year's fair.

The smell of hot dogs mingled with the odor of fresh-laid sawdust; candy floss competed with sticky ice cream bars; carnival men barked a raucous come-on in the midway, and kids from six to 60 let down their hair and had fun.

Not only the visitors were enjoying themselves.

In spite of the hard work thrust upon all the exhibitors, many of them had words of praise for the spectators.

"It's a wonderful show from any point of view," said Crown Zellerbach representative Bill Davidson, busily handing out souvenir paper napkins.

MUCH TO ENJOY

Spectators did not lack for entertainment either.

Organist Bayne Ryall and pianist Don Partridge provided musical backgrounds to the general din of the milling crowds.

The Moody Bible Institute held continuous showings of free movies entitled "Sermons From Science."

Ten lovely contestants for the "Miss B.C. Products Fair" title made personal appearances in both arenas. There was a fashion show, a musical quiz program, and a folk dancing exhibition.

Thousands of people flocked to see the fascinating hobby show, and crowds lingered around the mammoth rabbit display.

B.C. Salesmen Best in Canada

B.C. salesmen are the best in Canada, according to Ralph Chetwynd, provincial minister of trade and industry.

Addressing 140 guests of the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce at a pre-B.C. Products Fair dinner Monday, Mr. Chetwynd had words of praise for the work of British Columbians in selling the province.

"People and organizations such as Jaycees, are doing a wonderful job in promoting B.C."

Mr. Chetwynd warned the group that B.C. may lose industry to other provinces.

"The meat-packing industry," he said, "is in grave danger of going out of business in this province."

ALDERMEN IGNORE MAYOR ON 'QUIT UBCM' DEMAND

Recommendation that Victoria withdraw from membership in the Union of B.C. Municipalities was made by the mayor to City Council Monday night.

The mayor said the city was not gaining by belonging to the provincial association.

"I don't see where we get one dollar's advantage," he said. "We get stuck every time."

Since Victoria is to play host to the UBCM's annual meeting in the fall, no action was taken on the mayor's recommendation. Council approved allocation of $1,500 for the city's expenses for the convention.

The mayor acknowledged that since arrangements for the convention had been made the city could not very well do other than to carry on for the rest of the year, but hoped it would be free of the UBCM in 1955.

Screams at the Keyhole

WHEN LLOYD GEORGE complained, at the Paris peace conference of 1919, against "wild men screaming at the keyhole" he had in mind just such persons as Senators Knowland and McCarthy. They were boys at that time. They are now powerful statesmen, they have found their voices, magnified by radio and television, and their screams are directed at the keyhole of the White House.

Last week-end the screams of these two Congressional leaders rose to a new stridence.

Senator Knowland, the Senate leader of the President's party, called on the United States to move at once for a coalition defense against communism in Asia, even if that meant acting without the support of Britain, and he bitterly condemned the present attitude of the Churchill Government.

Senator McCarthy, escaping momentarily from his own dilemma in Washington, said that "all loyal Americans should see red" when Britain expands trade with communist countries and added: "As long as the communists hold in their blood-stained dungeons a single American uniformed man" the United States should not "send a red cent to those allies who are announcing they are going to ship the sinews of war to the enemy."

All this makes exciting headlines. It does not make sense. For what men like Senators Knowland and McCarthy propose is nothing less than the smash-up of the free world's alliance if foreign allies refuse to accept every aspect of American policy, or even if they reject the views of the Knowlands and McCarthys which are no part of American policy.

What these gentlemen forget, what President Eisenhower never forgets, is that the United States, for all its power, cannot operate alone in the present world. It needs its allies not for sentimental or charitable reasons but because they are absolutely essential to the operation of a successful American defense policy at every point in the world, outside the boundaries of the United States.

That fact is obvious on the map. Everywhere the lines of American power are dependent on bases, from Germany to Japan, held by foreign governments. Apart from any higher moral consideration, the coalition of the free world is essential to the safety of all its members, including the United States. As an American, Benjamin Franklin, once said, they must hang together or hang separately.

Thus the attempt to split the Grand Alliance if it does not always accept every senatorial suggestion from Washington is an attempt to undermine the United States while pretending to strengthen it. This is, indeed, the only kind of policy which offers any real hope to the communist world in its general assault on freedom. Men like Senators Knowland and McCarthy will doubtless have the enthusiastic applause of listeners in the Kremlin.

They will find no support for their basic theory of isolationism from the present occupant of the White House who, as a soldier, sees that freedom can be preserved only by unity among the free and that the United States can persuade but not coerce its friends.

It probably is all to the good that the theory of coercion and disunity should be brought into the open by the keyhole screamers so that it can be seen for what it is, but foreigners should remember that this sort of thing is not new in American politics. It has happened repeatedly from the first days of the Continental Congress onwards.

There have always been Knowlands and McCarthys in the United States and always will be. But there are always Eisenhower and Stevens as well. And today, though internally split, the Republican and Democratic Parties provide a substantial majority over the primitives, who, in their impatience, would wreck the prospects of the free world and of their own country, would benefit no one but the communists whom they propose to defeat.

Where to Place the Blame

IN A RECENT JUDGMENT ARISING from a contempt of court case in Vancouver, Mr. Justice J. V. Clynne takes occasion to comment on a philosophy of life frequently advanced as an excuse for certain human behaviour.

The words of the eminent judge are worth repeating.

"The philosophy . . . is very familiar. It denies the individual's responsibility for his actions and by the same token it denies the individual's freedom of choice and the exercise of free will. It blames society for the wrongs committed by individuals because it says by reason of social or economic pressures the individual is unable to do otherwise."

"It affords the individual the means of escaping the moral consequences of any wrongful act by enabling him to say, 'Because of the influences which have surrounded me from my birth I have become the sort of person that I am, and I am not responsible for those conditions which have moulded my character.'"

"It is the materialistic philosophy of determinism which is very popular in some quarters of the world today and which emphasizes the importance of causes and minimizes the importance of the choice by the individual between good and evil."

"In its last result it elevates the importance of the state at the expense of the individual and leaves to the state the acceptance of responsibility for both good and evil."

There is sympathy and forgiveness for the wrongdoer in such a philosophy, but it derives from weakness rather than from a true humanitarian feeling. Too many men and women have survived poor environments and achieved admirable lives—even greatness—for us to believe that surroundings, even in the formative years, are the only important influences.

The environment, of course, does count. But it can be surmounted.

There is in man a spirit, a conscience, a force—which makes him man. It can be less in some individuals than in others, but it is there, and few in the long history of humanity could honestly claim that at crucial points in their lives they lacked the power of choice between right and wrong, even though at a cost.

That some choose not to pay that cost cannot be blamed against society. Greed, indolence, selfishness, envy, revenge—these are indulged at the pleasure of the individual, and society must retain its right to render judgment.

Enlisting Financial Help

THIS WEEK THE SALVATION Army opened its annual campaign for funds in the Victoria district. A total of $30,000 is sought to carry on the work of the agency and hopes are held that the drive will follow the example of last year when collections exceeded the objective.

The help given by the Salvation Army to the unfortunate, to the all but forgotten and the rejected, has been widely publicized. Assistance, both spiritual and material is provided to those whose need is great.

The Constable and the Army

THE ACTION OF AN RCMP constable who stopped two cars in an Alberta military convoy because they did not carry current license plates, seems to have been viewed in some quarters with raised eyebrows. The surprise was occasioned by the fact that two of the passengers were a general and the Minister of National Defense, and the implication was that the constable showed some audacity, even brashness, in halting so important a cavalcade.

On the contrary, the man should be commended for his action, and no doubt was by his superiors. There is no reason why army automobiles should not carry the proper license plates—a view which was borne out by the sudden and peremptory order which followed the incident, "grounding" all unlicensed vehicles immediately.

The Mounties got their man, and there should be a few red official cars glowing in the foothills.

LOOSE ENDS

THOSE who are interested in the doubtful future of democracy (and no one else need read any further) will note with concern an exhibit recently produced in England by Mass Observation, a version of the Gallup poll.

It submitted to a thousand average Englishmen some names recently in the daily headlines, among them Senator McCarthy, Dr. Kinsey, Sir Edmund Hillary and John Reginald Halliday Christie. Only one person in six had ever heard of Senator McCarthy. About the same number identified Dr. Kinsey as a student of sex. Nearly everybody, however, knew Christie who, if you have overlooked him, is last year's Murderer of Notting Hill. About seventy-five per cent of those questioned were familiar with the name of Hillary.

These are not amusing but rather terrifying figures. "How wonderfully ignorant," The London Economist remarks, "the Common Man must be about practically everything in the realm of current events and recent history; how easy for Big Brother, his ascendancy once established, to manipulate that ignorance; and what a miracle it is that democracy, theoretically presupposing a rational and well-informed citizen body, should break along as well as it does."

PROBABLY the public at large hasn't heard of Big Brother either, but in case a few of the highly intelligent readers of this department have not made his acquaintance, he is George Orwell's imaginary but extremely realistic dictator in the future society of "Nineteen-Eighty-Four." Actually there are already several brothers of Big Brother around already, with Russian, Chinese and Spanish names, and many candidates for the brotherhood.

Therein may be seen the current and, it may be, the fatal dilemma of democracy—the facts of life have got beyond the grasp of the public which is supposed to weigh them and reach its own conclusions. How, for example, is a public to deal with McCarthyism when it hasn't even heard of McCarthy?

CLEARLY a kind of vicious circle is at work in democracy. The media of information, chiefly the newspaper press, are intelligent enough to know what news is important but most of them have found that if they print too much of it, and too little of the absurd and trivial—if they give more space in England to McCarthy, the statesman, than to Christie the murderer—they will probably go broke. So the popular English press, the only press ever seen by the great mass of people, ends by giving practically no important information at all.

ADDICTED to this diet, the public asks for more and more of the habit-forming drug of sensation and can tolerate less and less fact. As a result, this generation in the Western world, which considers itself the most educated in history,

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

The Poor Old Public

is the most ignorant in relation to its requirements. Our grandfathers, knowing much less, required much less and managed to master their environment. Our environment in this enlightened era is getting entirely out of our control and quite likely will extinguish us, as it once extinguished the dinosaurs, who couldn't think fast enough.

Another notable fact of the time is that in struggling to preserve democracy, the rule of the people, we actually have placed in the hands of a few men, perhaps not more than a dozen throughout the world, the power to destroy us by a moment of miscalculation.

NOW democracy, as we understand it in the English-speaking world, never supposed that the people could manage their own business. It supposed only that they were capable of electing governments which could manage their business sensibly. But when you read surveys of the public's knowledge, in Britain, the United States and Canada, you begin to wonder whether the people have enough knowledge to elect a safe dog catcher.

That precisely is the assumption on which our enemies, the communists, are operating. They never believed for a moment that the public had even the sense to come out of the radio-active rain. Essentially the struggle of the world today is a test of that assumption, nothing more nor less.

WHO is to blame for the present relative state of jungle ignorance is a nice question—the teacher or the public? Assuredly the responsibility of the teacher, the popular press in particular, is very heavy and the indictment against it not easily met.

The news editors, those men of incalculable power, are educated, well meaning and devoted to the whole to the public welfare. But they seem to feel that they must give the public what it wants and the public obviously wants as little fact and as much diversion as possible.

Only a few people, by all available evidence, want to read the dull stuff which involves their survival. They prefer the lively stuff which diverts them from their dilemma. In England, for example, they prefer a murderer to a McCarthy and on this continent no serious discussion of facts can ever compete in readership with the fiction of a good comic strip or some irrelevant scandal in Washington.

THE statesman or journalist who attempts to discuss the facts must often feel like a dumb man talking to himself in a dark alley while the gaudy procession of human events passes him by without a glance. Where is the procession going with its bands, its banners and hydrogen gimbals?

The communists think they know. The democrats might pause now and then to ask themselves the same question. They might take time off occasionally from all the noise and pseudo-information to think. For in the end we can only think our way out of the dilemma. There is no other way, except the communist way.

As Our Readers See It

ADMIRALS ROAD

It is a shock to read that a man to whom we are paying a $10,000 a year salary could have so little knowledge of conditions in his own constituency and so little courage to fight for his constituents. The Victoria member in Ottawa, Frank Estey, should be ashamed of himself when he asks the people of Esquimalt how he can do anything about getting Admirals road fixed. If he can't do anything about it, he ought to resign, for no member ever had a clearer case of injustice on behalf of his constituents.

WM. ALLARDICE

LILIES OF THE FIELD

Mr. Hubbard, Provincial Museum, says that people who insist on lilies are not violet, apparently lack human souls.

He's right. The genuine soul being spiritual and not "human" naturally shies away from humbug. His assertion that the term "violet" was in the olden time applied to many showy spring flowers is open to question. I've met no evidence of this though haunted by history all my life.

The term "showy" applied to the violet also sounds false, as from time immemorial the poets have enthused about the violet as being "modest" or in terms equivalent, the reverse of showy.

The ethereal wild lilies that grace my garden flourish bravely, a visible manifestation of truth, but genuine violets rashly popping up have a blighted concentration camp appearance, their name stolen, and suffering from our nasty climate.

G. SHRAPNEL

UNDER STUDY

Apparently another crafty attempt by the never-ceasing conspirators in Vancouver to steal a federal (or provincial) institution from Victoria has been defeated. The Times Tuesday carried an item reporting a senior official of the Attorney-General's Department as stating he had no reason to believe "such a move is imminent" (moving of the B.C. headquarters of the RCMP from Victoria to Vancouver).

The Chamber of Commerce, having read newspaper reports, had written the government protesting any such move. However, vigilance is still necessary, for the official said he believed "the press has correctly reported" that such a move has been under study. Would this not be a proper subject for the Greater Victoria Citizens' Association to watch? That is, assuming it is a citizens' committee and not merely a local association or committee with a temporary life, formed merely to attempt to bring prohibition back to Victoria.

A. W. ARDILL

Stranded in No Man's Land

The Nightmare in Washington

By WALTER LIPPMANN From Washington

DISGRACEFUL and damaging as is the whole squalid business, it would only make matters infinitely worse to close down or to interrupt the McCarthy hearings. This is a committee acting under the authority of the senate and before it are high officials in the executive branch of the government. The country had better be shown to the bitter end, no matter how long it takes, what grave damage McCarthyism has done to America.

Lippmann

The damage cannot be repaired by smothering the senate's inquiry. The confidence of our own people is profoundly shaken. Our prestige in the world and our claim to be the leader and defender of free peoples have been hurt by McCarthy, as they never were hurt by the world-wide apparatus of the Communist propaganda.

The heart of the damage is the fact that the government has allowed itself to be intimidated by an ambitious and ruthless demagogue. This damage, permitting ourselves to be intimidated, can be repaired only when it has been proven to ourselves and to the world abroad that nobody is afraid any longer.

As we watch the spectacle of a great government in disorder, we ask ourselves what is it that has gone so wrong. The Constitution, the government, American institutions, the churches, the schools and universities, the press are all still there, and yet the sanity and security of the country, its self-respect and its liberties are shaken and impaired.

FLAGRANT ABUSE

The immediate answer to the question of why we are so stricken leads directly, I believe, to the remedy for the trouble.

McCarthy's power is built not upon the constitutional right of congress to investigate but upon a flagrant abuse of that right. The abuse of that right is unchecked because the senate is not observing faithfully its constitutional obligations and because of an unnecessary, unwarranted and, in the spirit at least, an unconstitutional acquiescence by the president in the abuse.

The abuse lies in the taking over by a congressional committee of powers which belong to the executive and to the judicial branch. Take, for example, McCarthy's investigation at Fort Monmouth. Just what was it that the senate had a right and duty to investigate? The possible security risks before McCarthy got into the act.

For what purpose did he get into the act? Was he presuming to substitute himself for the army in judging each specific case? Was he questioning the good faith of the army which was dealing with the allegations of security risk? What was McCarthy doing at Fort Monmouth? Was there any legislation contemplated or required? Was there any allegation that the army was itself tainted with disloyalty and was not trying to eliminate the security risks which it, not Sen. McCarthy, had found it necessary to examine?

What, I repeat, was the senate investigating at Fort Monmouth? The answer is that it was not investigating anything that was its business as a legislature which makes the laws and then inquires into whether they are faithfully and efficiently and honestly administered and enforced.

USURPED POWER

The Fort Monmouth cases were entirely within the prerogative and the responsibility of the executive branch of the government. If after that, there had been, which there was not, any case of espionage, it was the duty of the Executive to take the case to the courts. The McCarthy investigation in all this is a usurpation of power which belongs to the Executive branch of the government.

Why does not the Senate forbid its own committees to commit this usurpation of power and to bring the government of the United States into such disorder and disrepute? There are, I would argue, many contributing but only one central and decisive reason for the Senate's behavior.

One of the contributing reasons is that the Party bosses have regarded McCarthy as a political asset. Another is that a large number of the Senators have been afraid of him, afraid of being attacked personally or politically by him.

Another contributing reason is that many Senators have not known how to meet the charge that only Communists are opposed to McCarthy, and have reluctantly had to admit to themselves that the cheapest and easiest way to not look red or pink was to be yellow.

But these are not the decisive reasons for the pusillanimous failure of the Senate to curb McCarthy. The decisive reason is that in this hard world and under the American system of government which is designed for the kind of hard world that the world is, the abuse of power is not curbed unless the abuse is resisted.

INVADIED RIGHTS

McCarthyism is an invasion of the prerogatives of other branches of the government, particularly the Executive branch. It is for the Executive to repel the invasion, to resist the usurpation, to defend its Constitutional prerogatives.

It would be nice, no doubt, if in a nicer world the Senate would observe the self-restraint which would make it unnecessary for an amiable and peace-loving President to fight for the rights of his office. But the Senate is not that nice, and so it will tolerate and connive at the abuses of McCarthy until and unless the President, whose administration is being abused, stands up and says so far and no further.

The day that happens the Senators, all but a mere handful of them, will rally to the President, relieved and rejoicing that the nightmare of their humiliation is over.

The most important changes of the next 25 years may well be apparently modest advances. I can imagine, for example, few changes that would have more far-reaching effects in Britain than the reduction of the size of all classes in our schools to thirty. That is the kind of unspectacular but difficult objective that we shall be setting ourselves in the next phase.

An Age of 'Teflon'

"NOTHING sticks to Teflon," says Canadian Industries Limited house magazine "Oval" in a lay comment on one of its new products.

"Teflon" is the trade name for tetrafluoroethylene resin—"teflon" for short. The magazine article describes the chemical composition of the substance. It is a compound which can be sprayed in a film on surfaces, and bakes so smooth nothing adheres to it—glue, cement, molten rubber or burnt scrambled eggs. Catherine Morgan of suburban Montreal has a frying pan coated with the stuff and she no longer has dishpan hands from trying to scrub it clean. "Teflon" is marvelous.

But if its physical qualities are astounding, teflon's intangible implications are even more amazing. It represents science's final achievement in developing a counterpart to this half-century's human attitudes. Nothing sticks to teflon.

What could be more appropriate for a generation that seems to have been teflonized?

There was a time when a person appeared to be largely what his experience and environment made him. Things stuck to him. It might have been exposure to culture or scholarship. By attaching himself to a subject, some of the learning adhered to him, even when he'd moved away. His mind was receptive to the point of stickiness. An idea would touch it and at least part of the idea would stay stuck.

THINGS USED TO STICK

It used to be a general belief that this was one of the educative processes. If a theory boiled and bubbled in a man's head, it was accepted that some of it would still be there—even when he laid aside the main idea—adhering to the inside of the skull like scrambled eggs to the fry pan.

But that point of view has been obliterated to a great extent in modern years. Man has been subjected to so many ideas, so many theories, so many advertising slogans, that he's conditioned himself against them.

He has read in the slick magazines and he has heard on the radio that no design for living is worth considering unless it includes use of the right bath soap, the right hair oil, the proper deodorant, the right collar line, the right cigarette—and often the right whisky. He couldn't be a man of distinction unless he was right about all these "rights."

So with that natural reflex which humanity sets up to defend itself, he has undergone a teflon process. He has assumed a coating of resistance to which, nothing sticks. That coating is impervious.

Today's man isn't too worried about the right soap, the right hair oil, the right deodorant. Just so long as he reads the right advertisements and listens to the right radio programs, he can be sure that his choice is right. No matter what he uses, some testimonial endorses it.

And when it comes to the matter of rightness, he's teflonized, too. He just accepts an idea, with or without study, and new ideas make little impression on him. Whatever kind of an intellectual omelette he finds himself concerned with, that protective coating is going to free him of it as soon as the cooking job's done.

TEFLONIZED

Talk to men leaving a club luncheon and you'll see the process at work. Ask them what they thought of the speaker. They'll tell you "Fine, fine. Good talk." Ask them what it was about and they may reach into their pockets for the club calendar on which the title is printed. But don't try to debate the subject with them. Chances are it didn't penetrate. Why should it? The teflon process has been well applied.

Talk to kids about school work. How are they doing? "Fine, fine. Like it swell." What are they doing? "Well, you know. Usual stuff, social studies, history, arithmetic, a little spelling." Are they getting it? "Oh, I dunno."

Some of the bright ones, young and old alike, haven't yet received their teflon treatment. They still respond to what's cooking. It doesn't rinse off in a hurry. But that only makes you wonder if they are really bright.

It's so much easier to be non-absorbent—to have none of the burnt scrambled eggs left around the side of things. Impervious is probably the word—no reactions to ideas, no ideas, no worries, just a nice glossy finish to which nothing sticks.

Phil Silvers is conferring with song-writer Sammy Cahn about plans for a new Broadway show. He'd love to return to the legitimate theatre if he could find the right vehicle. . . . Barbara Nichols, the curvaceous showgirl, is impersonating Judy Holliday in the New York scenes for the new flicker, "Phfft," while Judy remains on the coast. The girls look exactly alike in long shots.

Wealthy Bedford Sharpe has left New York for Texas—permanently, friends say—and his estranged wife, singer Juliana Larson, has possession of their Gotham apartment. Their three-year-old daughter is in her custody. . . . Quarter-sized Korean coppers imported by returning soldiers are giving vending machine operators on the West Coast their biggest headache since the serve-yourself boxes were invented.

Teresa Mori of "The Girl in Pink Tights" cast will waltz down the aisle with Dion Bert-Maring in Brooklyn on May 16. The Police Commissioner's newest drive in the department aims to clear up unsolved homicide cases.

Singer Joyce Bryant leaves Mt. Sinai, flies immediately to Hollywood to test for Otto Preminger, who is considering her for the lead in the celluloid version of "Carmen Jones." . . . The Jim Hearn (he's the Giants pitcher) are knitting tiny garments. It'll be their second—in October. . . . Four of the bus boys at Rosoff's restaurant should qualify as the most dexterous tray-toters in town. They once played the Palace as the "Inuyue Troupe"—a Japanese acrobatic-juggling act.

Several night-club owners—some East Side impresarios, others in the Broadway area—are considering a major step to help business: the removal of the minimum charge. They have all but reached the conclusion that the majority of cafe customers don't want to spend over $3 any more.

Home Was Never Like This!

You're never too old to travel, says 71-year-old Paul Schmelz, 322 Gorge Road West, just returned from a month's vacation at Honolulu. Two of the reasons for his observations are shown with him in the picture, the cheerful bachelor says. Retired since 1948 after 30 years with Ormond's Biscuit Factory here, Schmelz had not been off Vancouver Island since 1928 when he decided to fly on a real Waikiki holiday.

Concerto Classes Take Festival Spotlight

By AUDREY ST.D. JOHNSON

Concerto classes moved back from next Friday morning's program, were a feature of the piano sessions Monday, as the Greater Victoria Musical Festival continued after a week-end break.

Adjudicator Lyell Gustin described concerto playing as a broad canvas for the young pianist and worth several ordinary pieces in experience. His keen criticisms were well sprinkled with words of praise for the young, under 13-year-olds who essayed a fairly difficult concerto in E-flat major by Jean Williams.

Two, a boy and a girl, tied for first place with 84 marks. They are Judith Andrews of Victoria and Kenneth Bertram of Nanaimo. Linda Doyle gained second place with 81.

Other results during the morning were as follows: C. P. E. Bach, 11 years and under; Margaret Izard, 83; Trevor Jones, 78. Quick study, 14 years and under; Gordon Britton, 83; Jean Hammond, 81. Quick Study, 15 years and under; Carole Jones, 83; Isobel Ogle, 80. Quick Study, 16 years and under; Joseph Mandy, 83; Lorna Mulholland, 79.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

Toronto, Ont. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H. The price is only $1.19 a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly.

Drug Czar May Appeal To Highest Court

VANCOUVER (CP)—A second appeal may be launched on behalf of convicted drug king George Mallock, this time in the Supreme Court of Canada.

Mallock is being held in Oakalla Prison Farm here pending a decision on application for leave to appeal to a judge of the Supreme court by his lawyers.

Mallock's appeal against the 28-year prison sentence imposed on him was dismissed by the B.C. Court of Appeal which confirmed the sentence.

Young Lawyers Called to Bar Reminded of Duties by Judge

It is a duty of members of the legal profession to report to the "authorities" anyone who is disloyal to Canada, Mr. Justice A. M. Manson told two lawyers who were admitted and called to the bar at a ceremony in supreme court Monday.

The two new members of the legal profession are Thomas Alfred Thornycroft Rhodes of Victoria, and Donald Ross MacPhail, formerly of Montreal.

Speaking on the responsibilities of lawyers, Mr. Justice Manson said members of the legal profession have a "definite duty to the state." "You must not protect crime, disloyalty or treason," His Lordship said. "It is part of your duty to bring such cases to the attention of the authorities."

"There are some people in Canada today who are no longer loyal to queen and country," His Lordship said. "They are not numerous but they are a mischievous lot and you must do what you can to stop them from doing any harm to the country."

His Lordship also urged young lawyers to take a more active part in politics, claiming that their legal training made them especially suited to serve as the people's representatives in parliament and provincial legislatures.

Work Held Up by Heavy Equipment

At present some 75 men are employed clearing the new highway stretch from the end of Burnside Road to Goldstream, a distance of six miles.

Main problem in the $1,000,000 project is large amount of rock which must be blasted approximately 400,000 cubic yards.

IT'S MY VIEW

By BILL WALKER, Sports Editor

This is what the man said:
"The greatest athletic pageant and competitive sports spectacle to take place on the North American continent in 22 years..."

Al Williamson was referring, of course, to the British Empire Games which will be held in Vancouver starting three months from last Saturday. The exact dates are July 30 to August 7.

Oddly enough the words are the same as on the British Empire Games publicity folder, and should be for Al Williamson is the man behind the tub as the thumping continues for the forthcoming parade of Commonwealth champions.

In explanation, this was one particular day last week. Al and his staff were cordial hosts on a conducted tour of the games' facilities.

We were met at the airport by Al, who apologized for the fact that we had to ride in the "baby," a sleek product of the British automotive industry which, 'tis said, will do 150 per without becoming airborne. Although this wasn't proven conclusively, the threat was always present and thus the low-level tour commenced.

The first stop was the cycle track. We stepped up to the curb, crossed Broadway and gazed down upon a structure that cyclists already say will be the best and fastest in North America.

The most modern structure of its type in this hemisphere, the track has been specially constructed for the games and the 250-metre oval will, when completed, accommodate 4,500 spectators.

Two Firsts in the Dominion

The banked turns are so steep that it's impossible to climb to the upper lip of the track by ordinary means. That cyclists, of necessity, must go like all-get-out is obvious, even to the uninitiated. Else the law of gravity will take its inevitable toll.

A few blocks away, ideally located with the grandeur of the North Shore mountains as the backdrop of British Columbia's rugged beauty, there sits the B.E.G. stadium, also the best and biggest in our Dominion. Ten thousand seats are under cover and 15,000 in the open—all permanent. Adjoining the Pacific National Exhibition, the huge horseshoe-shaped amphitheatre can also cater to 10,000 standees in the open end of the bowl. Every seat commands an excellent view of the infield where later this year Annis Stukas and his B.C. Lions will cavort upon the greensward.

The quarter-mile cinder track is at present one inch too long, but this will be remedied, no doubt, before the Empire Games records begin to tumble.

And tumble they will, in all likelihood, for this edition of the games already has set a record for entries from the ranking athletes of the Commonwealth. Over 800 entries have been received and the list is growing with each succeeding day.

Over two and one-half million dollars will have been spent on facilities for the games, most of which will be permanent. And one of the finest of this type is the swimming pool at the University of British Columbia and regarded by those who should know as the only pool of Olympic specifications in North America.

Opening To Be Unforgettable Spectacle

"Fantastic, isn't it?" said Bill Good, who by now had taken over as pilot for the second leg of the journey. (But not before a downtown landing to refuel, the octane rating being of sufficient standards to produce the desired result of conviviality).

To us of mortal talents, the glistening water looked only "cold," but to the B.E.G. contingent, the 50-metre, seven-lane pool will probably seem like Valhalla. Modern in every detail with the diving tower reaching up into the sky hooped by a spiral staircase, the pool provides a beautiful setting below the wing of the UBC basketball stadium. When completed the stands will accommodate 6,000 or more spectators.

These were the main points of interest along the route, but they don't tell the whole story of the games.

For besides track and field, swimming and the pedal pushers, there's a galaxy of events on the agenda. Boxing will take place in the Vancouver Forum, wrestling in the Exhibition Gardens and lawn bowling on the green. These and many more.

Yes, it could and undoubtedly will be an unforgettable spectacle when the Commonwealth's greatest athletes file into the stadium, solemnly take the games' oath of all sportsmen, and stand rigidly at attention as, in turn, each of the flags of the 18 competing nations are slowly run-up the mast in an impressive ceremony that defies prior description.

A fanfare of trumpets, a salvo of guns, the release of hundreds of homing pigeons and the British Empire and Commonwealth Games, second only to the Olympics as an athletic rally, will be under way come July 30.

Don't miss it.

Stampede Set New Crowd Mark for WHL

Calgary Stampede set a new Western Hockey League fan attendance record of 261,778 last season.

Stamps, who won the league post-season playoff recently by eliminating league champion Vancouver Canucks in a best-of-seven series, drew a total of 187,793 fans during the regular league schedule and an additional 73,985 for the playoffs.

Quebec Aces No Strangers To Western Hockey Patrons

CALGARY (CP) — Quebec Aces engage a potent batter on home ice when they take on Calgary Stampede here tonight in the opening game of a best-of-nine series to decide Canada's minor professional hockey championship.

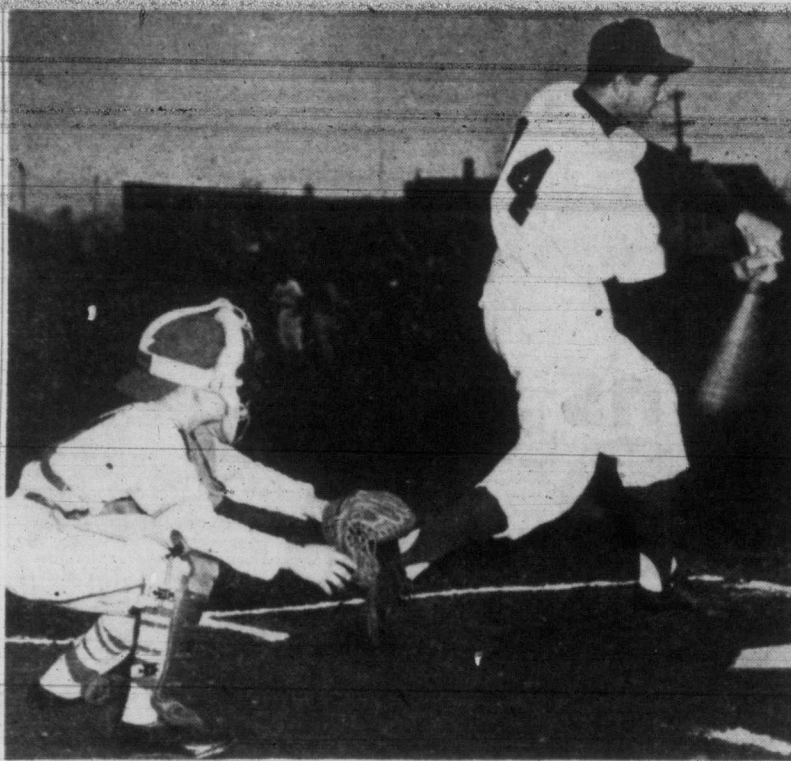

The Stampede lost only one of their 10 home ice playoff games in eliminating Billy Reay's Victoria Cougars. Bud Polle's Edmonton Flyers and Art Chapman's Vancouver Canucks to win their first Western Hockey League title.

Both the Aces and Stampede have just emerged from two will be played in the east.

ROLLINS EDGES KELLY FOR NHL HART TROPHY

MONTREAL (CP) — Angular Al Rollins, sensational goaltender for Chicago Black Hawks, has been judged the National Hockey League player most valuable to his team last season, the NHL announced today. He wins the Hart Trophy and $1,000.

In a pool of hockey writers and broadcasters in the six NHL cities, Rollins got the nod over Red Kelly of Detroit Red Wings. He won 80 points compared to 74 for Kelly. Maurice Richard of Montreal Canadiens was third with 44 points.

A Big Leaguer at Heart

Victoria Tyees opened their 1954 Western International Baseball League home schedule on a successful note Monday night by besting Tri-City Braves, 7-5. And no one was more interested in the proceedings than youngster Tom Birkenhead, classy catcher for North Kiwanis of Victoria's Little League Baseball circuit. Tom donned his equipment to participate in pregame ceremonies with teammate Jackie Gaston in striking out Tyees' manager Don Pries. (Times Photos by Halkett.)

Elkins Takes Masters' Title

SEATTLE (AP) — Eugene (Red) Elkins, 28-year-old San Francisco bowler, won the 41st annual American Bowling Congress' masters' tournament title Saturday night with an 865-727 win over Willard Taylor, Charleston, W. Va.

Elkins trailed in the first three frames of his first game but then found the range and finished ahead with a 195. He added games of 191-207-212 for his winning series.

Elkins tumbled 6,053 pins in winning eight straight games as he worked undefeated toward the championship.

He was the only undefeated bowler in the masters'.

Most Valuable

NEW YORK (AP) — George Red Sullivan of the Hershey Bears, who set a scoring record of 119 points in the season just ended, today was announced as the most valuable player in the American Hockey League for the 1953-54 campaign.

Eleven of the penalties went to Sudbury, who scored first and fought to keep the lead, and six went to Penticton who trailed blow for blow in a bid to haul the contest out of the fire.

Speck put Sudbury ahead in the first period on a goal that stood up until the third period, when Tomiuk stretched the margin to 2-0. Fairburn's one-third period effort wasn't enough to catch up.

MENTYRE OFFSIDE

Penticton flashed the goal light first early in the first period when Jack McIntyre picked up a pass from across two lines and went in to score. It was disallowed.

On The

OUTDOOR FRONT

With DENNY BOYD

There was a Pete Smith Specialty on at one of the local flicker-houses recently that was of more than passing interest to local anglers.

This movie short had to do with fish stories. But, unlike the usual yarns, this one had pictorial proof to back up the claims.

There were three little tales, one of which was completely dull. The other two were mighty interesting.

The dull one concerned a youngster who has taught his dog to fish. He ties a hand-line to his dog's tail and the dog sits there until he feels a tug at his nether regions. He then rises impassively and trots to his master, dragging his catch in the dust.

However, we feel dogs should stick to chasing cats.

The next gimmick story showed quite a spark of ingenuity by a young angler and his little ruse might work.

The kid was still fishing for pan-fish in a small lake.

When he caught his first fish, instead of knocking it over the head and tossing it in the fish box, he quickly but carefully removed the hook and tied a short length of string to the mouth of the fish. (It looked like a Bluegill or Crappie).

To this string he attached a big red balloon and then set the fish free.

Scared out of its wits by being caught, the fish made hasty tracks to rejoin the sanctuary of the school it had left to take the bait.

Naturally, the balloon was tagging right along with the fish, bumping along the surface.

When the fish rejoined the school, it stopped and so did the balloon, giving our young angler a perfect bead on the school. He hauled his limit up in no time, just fishing around the tell-tale balloon.

No Fish Is Safe From Erne

Erne St. Clair, the famous Pacific Northwest light tackle expert, was the subject of the third little yarn—or rather, his method of stream fishing for salmon was.

Erne spins in the famous Rogue River of Oregon for the huge salmon that are going up-stream to spawn.

The Rogue is a fast river, full of white water and rocks and is scarcely the place to hold a dispute with a 40-pound salmon at the end of a six-pound test thread-line. But Erne does.

Before he came across an equalizing gimmick, Erne used to land only a pitifully small percentage of the fish he hooked. He didn't have a chance against the fish when they started to run downstream.

And so Erne decided to go right along with the fish.

As soon as one of the river lunkers starts ambling downstream with Erne's line, he dives butt over apex into the stream and follows the fish. A huge man and a powerful swimmer, Erne somehow manages to stay on top of the water, to keep from being bashed silly in the boulder-strewn rapids and to keep a tight line on his fish.

He has bounced down the river in this manner as far as three miles before conquering his catch.

First button fish of the year was hauled in Sunday off Chesterfield Rock in McKenzie Bay. The 23½-pounder was taken by R. E. Smith of Colwood on a Hookum Spoon and flasher using 20 ounces of weight and 300 feet of line. The only trouble was, Smithy hadn't bought his new membership card and so won't get a button. But he'll be eating salmon steaks for a while.

Game warden Bob Sinclair reports that practically every boat he checked on Shawanigan Lake Sunday, had three or four nice-sized trout. Best catches were made on the perennial gang troll, spinner and worm or orange flatfish.

Stan Williams reports blueback fishing off Nanaimo is "fantastic." Some nice-sized springs are being taken in Esquimalt Harbor.

At Maclean of Painter's resort at Campbell River reports the little lakes, such as Lower Quinsam, Gooseneck, Echo, Mohun and Crane, are turning out a lot of fine, pan-size trout to the dry fly. They're not big fish but are eatin' size and there are plenty of them.

Chisox Getting Help In Bid to Beat Yanks

Chicago White Sox are making every effort to run away from the New York Yankees in the American League pennant race, and for a change they're getting some help.

For more seasons than they care to remember the rest of the managers in the league have found out the hard way that no team can beat the Bronx Bombers all by itself. But this year every team the Yanks have played has beaten them at least once—and they've played every team in the league except Baltimore. The Orioles open a three-game series in New York today.

Meanwhile, the White Sox have recovered from three quick losses at the start of the season and have won nine of their last 12 games. They lead the league by one game over the surprising Detroit Tigers and hold a four-game edge over the Yankees.

Johnny Groth, a .253 weakling with St. Louis Browns last year, is leading the Sox with a .361 average. Ferris Fain, who followed two straight batting championships with a miserable .256 performance last season, is hitting .328.

Pitchers Bob Keegan, Sandy Consuegra and Don Johnson have accounted for seven victories without being beaten.

Consuegra won his second one Monday. Despite the 14-3 score against Philadelphia Athletics he gave up only two hits—a bunt single and a wind-blown double—both by Forrest Jacobs.

St. Louis Cardinals beat New York Giants 8-2 Monday night in the only other activity in the majors.

Consuegra and Johnson, who followed two straight batting championships with a miserable .256 performance last season, is hitting .328.

PITCHERS WANTED

Arrows Thump Sailors

Arrow Furniture 19, Navy 10

Either the batters are ahead of the pitchers or this is a hitter's year.

And after what happened at Central Park Monday night in the Senior A Men's Softball League, it looks like it is a case of the latter.

Arrow Furniture picked up their first win of the season by outlasting Navy, 19-10.

The winners picked up a total of 16 hits off the offerings of four Navy pitchers, while Navy exploded with a seven-run inning to put the game on a more even plane after Arrows had built up a huge 19-3 lead.

The scorekeeper's nightmare started early. Arrows picked up a single run in the first, scored five runs on five hits in the second, including a two-run homer by Ronnie Benn.

Navy got on the scoreboard in the top of the third with two runs and Norm Haskell came in to pitch for the blue-jackets.

Haskell held the score down for two innings but bumped into trouble in the last of the fifth when he was nicked for four runs on four hits.

Navy made it 10-3 in the sixth, but another change of pitchers by Navy started the deluge again.

Gordy Knight walked five of the first six batters he faced, and Ches Padgett came back in from centerfield to pitch.

Before the inning was over, seven runs were across the plate for the niggardly total of only one hit, a double by Don Robinson.

That was the trend and it continued.

Ross pitched long enough to gain credit for the win, while the loss was charged to Padgett.

Hal Yardley, Robinson and Willie Benn had three hits apiece.

Tonight at 6:30, Chinese Students will be looking for their first win when they meet Fletchers at the upper Central Park diamond.

Randy Saw 'Whole Bunch of Mitris'

ROME (AP)—Britain's Randy Turpin said he saw "a whole bunch of Mitris" Sunday night just before Italian middleweight Tiberio Mitri flattened Randy in 28 seconds.

Turpin's manager, George Middleton, said Monday that the first thing Randy will do when he returns to London in three or four days will be to see a medical specialist.

He quoted Turpin as saying just as the bell rang for the brief encounter:

"My eyes are queer—I can't see anything."

"I told him," said Middleton, "to make sure he saw Mitri and nothing else."

A moment later, after the knockout, Middleton said Turpin told him: "I could see five or six Mitri right if I looked at the floor."

Junior Piano Champion

Junior champion in piano classes at Greater Victoria Musical Festival, which began last Thursday and continues to Friday this week, is Kenneth Bertram, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bertram, Nanaimo. He was declared winner in finalist's contest Monday night, over five other candidates. Kenneth took first place in three classes, including junior concerto, and second in one. He travels to Victoria every two weeks to study with a local teacher. Lyell Gustin, pianoforte adjudicator, believes Kenneth has future in music.

Dairymen Launching Promotion Campaign

Producers, Distributors Plan Increase In Appreciation, Sale of Milk Products

"Make Mine Milk," is the slogan adopted by the newly-formed Vancouver Island Milk Foundation, which plans a campaign aimed at broadening public appreciation of milk, and increasing its sale.

Producers and distributors have taken upon themselves the responsibility of promoting their product, telling their story, of which they are justly proud, and introducing themselves and their industry to the public.

A temporary policy committee has been appointed to study ways and means of carrying out its program, and has the full support of Agriculture Minister Kenneth Kiernan.

Its chairman is Archie H. Mills of Victoria. Other Victoria men on the committee are Robert Godfrey and Henry S. Robinson, representing producers, and Jack Primrose of Palm Dairies and Albert Trimball of Northwestern Creamery, representing the distributors.

"BOSSIE" IS TALKER

Up-Island members are J. DeClark, Ladysmith; H. A. Armishaw, Nanaimo; D. McKinnon, Port Alberni, and R. U. Hurford, Courtenay.

Already the committee has taken steps to put milk to the forefront. "Bossie," a "talking cow" that speaks for her sister cows, is one of the features in the B.C. Products Fair now in progress in Victoria.

The non-profit organization is allied with, but is not a part of, the Vancouver Island Dairymen's Association.

IMPROVE SERVICE

Its aims and objects will be to foster a spirit of achievement within the industry, boost the morale of persons in the industry, improve public appreciation of the value of milk, study

Related Committees Probe Plans For Development of Beban Park

NANAIMO — PNE officials, and provincial government representatives, will be called upon for advice in development of the city's newly-purchased Beban Park.

Problems of care and upkeep, new buildings, administration, and possible assistance were discussed at a meeting with the city council, recreation commission, and Vancouver Island Exhibition Association.

Arena and parks commissions also will be involved in future discussions.

The exhibition association is interested mainly in buildings, said T. James, treasurer.

YEAR-ROUND USE

"When these are obtained we can call for grants from both Dominion and provincial governments," he said. "Let us have an over-all plan of needed buildings, and let's have them so we can use them 365 days a year. They are only needed for one week for the exhibition."

Ald. Mrs. Gertrude Hall pointed out the necessity of knowing what grants could be expected, and what restrictions might be put on the buildings if, for instance, money was granted by the agriculture department.

The recreation commission is seeking revenues, said Dr. W. R. McMillan, chairman, suggesting a possible source might be in using the park for senior sports.

NANAIMO'S CHILLIEST DAY SETS NEW RECORD FOR MAY

NANAIMO — A search of weather records by Hiram Gough, unofficial weatherman, revealed that an all-time low temperature for May—27.2 degrees—was set here May 1.

He discounted the effect of H-bomb explosions on the weather.

"It's a cycle, and it just happens to be a bit chillier than we've been used to," he said.

CD Veteran Warns Against Radioactive Contamination

NANAIMO — A warning that radioactive materials could be carried to British Columbia in the same manner as Japanese balloons during the Second World War was voiced here by Pete Maffeo, wartime civil defense chief.

Speaking to the CD organization Monday night, he suggested that contamination of Japanese fishing boats might indicate that "some of our own weapons may be getting out of control."

"Civil defense knowledge of anti-contamination may well be needed," he said.

Mr. Maffeo reviewed the history of civil defense, and the several calls made upon it in the past. He also suggested an immediate full-scale practice.

"This will show what holes need to be filled up," he said.

Dawson Gordon, new CD director, reported a new group formed by the Latter-Day Saints had offered to help in an emergency by caring for 50 children. Two delegates from the group have been appointed to the welfare committee, he said.

"Welfare organization is going ahead in accordance with a nation-wide trend," Mr. Gordon said. "Outside districts are realizing the necessity of their taking part."

Outdoor Club From Seattle Visits Gulf

GANGES — A group of 34 men and women, members of the "Trailriders" section of Seattle Mountaineers Club, has left for home after a novel week-end of cruising and camping in the Gulf Islands.

The party arrived by air at Patricia Bay airport early Saturday morning and boarded two chartered launches at Sidney. Visitors spent the remainder of the day cruising among the islands and stopped at several.

Saturday night they gathered at the Harbat-House Hotel grounds here for an open-air clam supper. They returned to Sidney and the airport Sunday via a different route.

Leader of the group was Andrew S. Bowman, who told the Times correspondent he had spent many years in the Sidney area as a boy.

"I used to hate Sidney and the Saanich Peninsula," he said, "but after having seen a good part of the rest of the world, I am convinced that the beauty of these islands cannot be excelled anywhere."

Rat Problem Irks Nanaimo Ratepayers

NANAIMO — A resolution requesting that the medical health director report on the problem of rats in the Indian reserve and Chinatown, was passed by the Nanaimo Ratepayers' Association here.

The association also voiced its objection to the proposed Wakefield Avenue cemetery and suggested an investigation of alleged interest of council members in real estate deals.

William Elde was elected as president. Other officers are Dan McMillan, vice-president, and Mrs. Theresa Murdock, secretary-treasurer.

Genocide Convention Ratified by Soviet

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Soviet deputy foreign minister Andrei Vishinsky deposited with the United Nations Monday the Soviet Union's ratification of the convention against genocide and a convention on political rights for women.

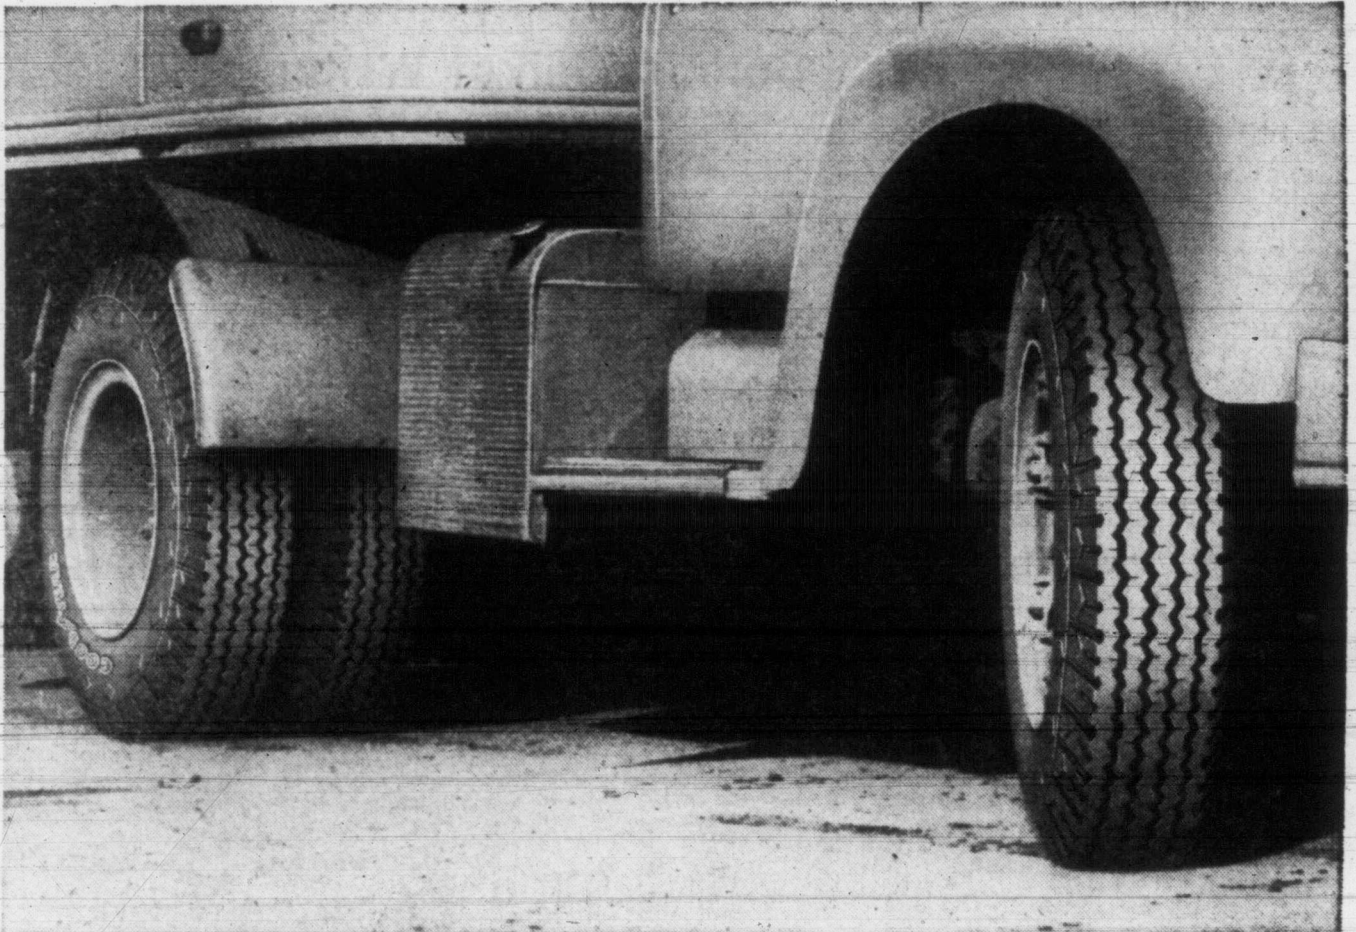

The convention against genocide, approved by the UN Assembly in 1948, is intended to outlaw the mass extermination of a race or a religious group. Forty-three countries including Canada have ratified it. The United States has not.

The convention on political rights for women guarantees the right of women to hold office and have equal political rights with men.

Now — a truck tire so new it's years ahead of its time!

GOODYEAR TRACTION HI-MILER

features many great advances in truck tire design!

Right from the basic carcass through to its huskier 5 rib tread, the Traction Hi-Miler is entirely new.

So new, in fact, that it outdates all other highway transport tires now on the road!

LESS SIDE-SLIP THAN ANY OTHER RIB TRANSPORT TIRE

Here—for the first time in truck tires—is a slotted tread design. Result: scores of sharp, gripping edges that grab the road—give you 25% more traction and side-skid resistance than any other rib transport tire!

TREAD CRACKING CUT TO A BARE MINIMUM

In ordinary tires, the cord fabric heats-up, stretches out of shape. This causes tread cracking.

Now Goodyear announces a great new development—Triple-Tempered 3-T cords (both rayon and Nylon). This exclusive Goodyear process . . . requiring Time, Temperature and Tension . . . "sets" the cords at their maximum strength and resiliency. Result: they don't stretch out of shape—tire growth is controlled—tread cracking is reduced to a bare minimum! This new cord is stronger, too—gives greater bruise resistance—sharply increases tire life.

MORE RECAPS

Because the new cord fabric is stronger, tougher—and because the tire runs cooler—the new Traction Hi-Miler is in better condition for repeated recaps. You get all the original mileage plus bonus mileage from multiple recaps!

SEE YOUR GOODYEAR DEALER

He can tell you all the reasons why the all-new Traction Hi-Miler is so far in advance of any other transport tire. Let him show you how you can save money by equipping your trucks now with this great new tire. It's available in either rayon or Nylon cord construction.

The woman was released from St. Joseph's Hospital Monday after treatment for minor injury.

TWO for the SHOW

By PHIL LEE

AA (Censor Class) 8 (Don't Miss) BB (Worthwhile) 15 For Rainy Days C (To get to times)

(A) "MOGAMBO" (Royal)—With its magnificent on-the-scene color photography of African wild-life, magical shots of sunsets on turgid rivers and the humid heat of dank jungle, M.G.M.'s "Mogambo" didn't need much plot to make it an absorbing motion picture.

But in addition to all these things there is a story. And the story features a nicely balanced cast of capable actors headed by veteran Clark Gable as Victor Marswell, a man who spends his life in a lonely out-post snaring wild life for zoos and scientific expeditions.

Conflict arises when Eloise Y. Kelly (Ava Gardner), a blunt-speaking, gay, gum-chewing babe from New York, arrives on the scene to spend a gay week-end with a rajah who stands her up. She and Gable hit it off in intimate style until the arrival of prissy Linda Nordley (Grace Kelly), English wife of English scientist Donald Nordley (Donald Sinden). The two become enamoured, much to the dismay of Kelly and camp members John Brown-Pryce (Philip Stainton) and Leon Boltchak (Eric Pohlmann).

While Victor is trying to get up enough courage to tell Nordley he is going to take his wife away from him, the expedition journeys into the gorilla country and gives the film some of its most exciting scenes. These were actually taken among the Samburu tribe of Kenya Colony, the Wagania tribe of the Belgian Congo, the Bahaya tribe of Tanganyika and the M'Beti tribe of French Equatorial Africa.

Nicely directed by John ("The Quiet Man") Ford and produced by Sam Zimbalist, the movie just misses top ranking. But not by very much.

Gable has his best role since "The Hucksters" and the beautiful Ava Gardner improves each time out. Grace Kelly, of course, has just begun. It is enough to say that Miss Gardner and Miss Kelly both received Academy Award nominations for this one and justly so.

In conclusion, "Mogambo" is a fine, entertaining film.

11-Year-Old Nanaimo Virtuoso Is Festival's Top Junior Pianist

By AUDREY ST.D. JOHNSON
 Monday's activities on the Musical Festival-front brought forth several highlights, and culminated in the official opening last evening at First United Church, when J. F. K. English, deputy minister of education and former president of the Festival Association, gave a brief address.

Keenest competition on this occasion was provided by junior piano class finalists Alan Radcliff, Shirley Russell, Marilyn Heywood, Judith Andrews, Maureen Carey and Kenneth Bertram.

The last named, an 11-year-old from Nanaimo, was declared the winner by adjudicator Lyell Gustin, who praised his style, beautiful flowing phrases, sensitivity and imagination.

(See Page 10)

Of the whole group, Mr. Gustin said: "I have never heard a higher grade achieved in junior piano performances in any festival before coming to Victoria. They were all concert performers at their particular level."

LIVELY SKETCH
 Duologues in costume are being tried for the first time, and have been a great success, particularly with the onlookers.

In the class for adults, 21 years and over, Doris Hopkins, and Kathryn Roberts presented a lively, well-enacted sketch, "The Lord Mayor's Show."

One of the most important classes in the festival is the leader contest. Filmer Hubble, Winnipeg vocal expert, lecturer, teacher and choral conductor, is presiding for his second successive year in Victoria over adult vocal and choral classes. Yesterday he heard five vocalists and pianists perform Schubert lieder and judged them, as a team.

Madonna McCable and Joan Creighton were the winning team, being awarded 86 and 85 marks respectively for their performance of "Die Forelle." Second was Adele H. Gault and Lorraine Brand, with 87 and 82, and third, Nina and Thelma Bavin with 82 and 78.

Beverly Husband was winner of the Grade A Soprano Class with the high marking of 176. Kitty Dixon was second, gaining 172 total.

CHARMING CHILDREN

Speech Arts occupied the day at Metropolitan Church school-room, with Mrs. Campbell adjudicating. Two youngsters, Jeannie Belcher and Michael Churchill were charming in the duologue in costume class for juniors, 14 years and under. Their scene was from Charles Dickens' "David Copperfield" and they won first place with 82 marks. Dona Carr and Davin Hobbs were second with 81 and Wayne Rowley and Tom Naysmith and Judy Hirst and Norma Dickinson tied for third place with 80.

Kathryn Roberts, outstanding in speech arts work in previous festivals, was first in the adult class for Poems by Greater Victoria Poets with 85 marks, and also in the Ladies' Open, where she obtained 88. In Shakespearean Monologues she came second with 82, one mark behind Doris Hopkins who received 83. The latter was second in the Victoria Poets' class and the open.

In Men's Open, Bob Fleming took first with 84 marks, and Ben H. Dengler, second, with 83. Other results to date:

Jennie Lee Sounds Warning Of War Danger

Speaks Out Against West Arms Plan

TORONTO (UP)—Jennie Lee, outspoken Member of Parliament—wife of British leftwing Laborite Aneurin Bevan—left for a United States speaking tour today after telling Canadians a rearmament West Germany may set off a third world war.

Miss Lee was scheduled to speak at a labor rally in Buffalo, N.Y., tonight and at a meeting of the Americans for Democratic Action in Washington tomorrow. It was believed in both cases she would castigate the United States for the way it is handing its foreign policy and criticize Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

She told a Toronto audience of 3,000 in Massey-Hall Monday night that admission of West Germany into the European defense community with 12 military divisions was likely to backfire on its supporters.

"The tragedy is that the same Nazi element is again in business in government and military circles. They will use these arms to get more arms," she said.

Miss Lee also touched on the Geneva conference and the Indo-China war.

She said France could have avoided war in Indo-China by taking the same attitude that Britain did in granting independence to Ceylon, India and Burma.

"Mr. Dulles' diplomacy has all the delicacy of an elephant trading on eggs," she said.

F.D.R. Planned Seizure Of British Island—Ickes

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Edward Daladier. On Oct. 9, 1938, the year of "Munich," published Monday, disclosed that President Roosevelt was prepared to use military force in 1938 to prevent Adolf Hitler from gaining "foothold" in the Western Hemisphere.

Mr. Roosevelt, according to Ickes, was going to send the U.S. Navy to seize two British and French islands in the Caribbean that he "suspected" would be given to Hitler to appease the Nazi dictator's "appetite" for colonies.

Ickes, who was interior secretary for 13 years under Presidents Roosevelt and Truman, also revealed in his diary the intimate details of cabinet life under the two Democratic presidents.

UP TO WORLD WAR

The current volume, 721 pages long, and second in a series, covers the period from November, 1936, when Mr. Roosevelt had been re-elected to his second term, until September, 1939, when the Second World War broke out in Europe. Other volumes are in preparation.

Ickes records the disgust of U.S. officials for the appeasement offered Hitler by British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and French Premier

KISSLESS CEREMONY

Honeymoon Delayed Month As Narriman Remarries

CAIRO, Egypt (UP)—Former Queen Narriman married a young $140-a-month physician Monday, but immediately was separated from him until the sacred Moslem month of Ramadan has passed.

Ramadhan, the month of fasting, begins today. Narriman wed Dr. Adham el Nakeeb in a kissless private ceremony at her suburban home. Only 10 guests, members of the couple's immediate families, attended.

It was a marked contrast to Narriman's marriage to former King Farouk, which was surrounded by a blaze of publicity and the magnificence and luxury of the Egyptian monarchy.

Narriman did not attend the actual ceremony Monday, following Moslem tradition. She appeared at a reception dressed in a white silk cocktail dress. The traditional iced rosewater and sugar-coated almonds were passed around to reception guests.

Asked if the handsome doctor tor kissed the bride, a family spokesman indignantly replied: "Certainly he did not. We are Oriental people."

Narriman, who once said she never wanted to be queen anyway, had her marriage to Farouk dissolved by the High Shariah Court earlier this year. The ceremony was in Narriman's Heliopolis suburban home, where she once took boarders to pay expenses following her separation from Farouk.

The newlyweds were united briefly at the reception. Today El Nakeeb returns to Alexandria, where Narriman will join him in a month.

DOWRY IN ADVANCE

Adham had put up $280 in advance on his dowry, in keeping with the Moslem custom which makes the man, not the woman, pay. But as to a honeymoon, he said, "we don't have enough money to go to Europe on a honeymoon."

It was "love at first sight" when he first met Narriman last summer, the young doctor said. He proposed after learning she had started divorce proceedings against Farouk.

"And she said yes immediately," the doctor said. He earns $140 a month at present. His father was a close friend of the exiled king.

Vancouver Lawman In Midnight Duel With Knife Wielder

VANCOUVER (CP)—Robert Woodward, 21, was charged with assault on a police officer Monday, following a midnight duelliststick against knife on a Vancouver bridge.

Constable E.C. Vipond said he spotted a man loitering on the span in the downtown area and left his car to question him. The man pulled a knife, the officer said, and threatened: "Come near me and I'll ram this through you."

"He made a pass at me with the knife," the officer said. "I reached out my gun and he stopped. I dropped my gun back in my holster and pulled out my nightstick."

"Every time he lunged at me I whacked his arm with my nightstick. He finally saw he wasn't doing much good, so he threw the knife in the water and gave up."

Manager Wyatt Riled In Hot City Debate

'Wouldn't Go' Now, He Says, as Mayor Hits Proceedings and Cost of Conventions

Hottest argument yet to develop out of City Council's budget trimming sessions came Monday night over the question of sending civic department heads to professional conventions.

An item in the provisional budget called for $2,537 to allow 13 officials to attend 23 conferences.

The mayor suggested the whole list be wiped out.

Ald. Geoffrey Edgelow suggested all but $480 be cut so that the city manager could attend the city manager's convention and the comptroller-treasurer a comptrollers' conference. Both are to be held later this year in San Francisco. It was estimated the manager's expenses would run to $215, and the comptroller's, $265.

Ald. William Pinfold objected to the cut. He said it was good business to send key executives to professional conferences. This was a recognized fact in private concerns.

"They don't send them to Harrison Hot Springs to have a drink," the mayor said.

Ald. Edgelow next suggested that $833 be allowed so that the fire chief could attend his convention in Penitence and the city engineers' meetings in Penitence and Seattle.

Ald. Pinfold said: "Surely to goodness we're not going to pull a hood over our heads and not let our employees know what similar employees are doing elsewhere. That's penny-wise and pound foolish."

"One good idea that one employee brings back is liable to save this city thousands of dollars," he said.

Ald. Brent Murdoch suggested $537 be cut from the estimate, leaving $2,000, which could be spent as City Manager Cecil Wyatt saw fit.

"Leave me out of it," Mr. Wyatt asked. "I wouldn't go under any circumstances after some of the remarks made here."

Mr. Wyatt said the conventions covered by the $2,537 had been carefully gone into.

"This is a very selective list," he said. "The values to the city

Rehabilitation Of Disabled To Be Co-Ordinated

B.C. has signed an agreement with the federal government to co-ordinate and develop rehabilitation activities for disabled persons in the province, it was announced Monday by Health and Welfare Minister Eric Martin.

Cost of the program, which will be split between the province and Ottawa, is expected to be about $40,000 annually.

A provincial co-ordinator will soon be named to handle the project.

The details of the agreement were worked out last January when Mr. Martin met with

Texas Trip Goal of 16 Boys In Optimist Oratory Contest

A Victoria boy may compete in an international public speaking contest at Houston, Texas, later this spring, in search of a $1,000 prize.

The contest is sponsored by the International Optimist Clubs, and 18 Victoria boys are at present in the running under the auspices of the local club.

Under the new arrangement, various organizations now assisting disabled persons will be co-ordinated and overlapping functions eliminated.

Six of the 18 will be selected to compete in an elimination contest in the Salvation Army Hall, Thursday at 7.30 p.m. The winner will be sent to the 13th District Optimist Convention at Yakima, to compete against representatives of 20 Pacific Northwest Optimist clubs.

The winner of this contest will compete for the grand prize at Houston. All boys in the contest are 16 years old or under.

"Grandmother's recipe paid for our kitchen!"

"Look delicious, don't they? They're my Grandmother's Southern Pecan cookies. You'll never believe this recipe paid for our kitchen..."

"You see, a few years ago I baked several batches of these cookies for our church bazaar. A lot of people liked them so well, they made inquiries as to who made them. I began to get a special order or two... then a few more, until nowadays I bake as many as forty dozen cookies a week. Tom... he's my hubby... delivers them in the evenings."

"Well, we were really surprised at the money we were earning. So we decided to see if we could save enough to completely modernize our kitchen. Every week we added the cookie money to our joint savings account at The Dominion Bank. What a difference those few extra dollars made!"

"Now Tom and I have our new kitchen, we've got a new objective. We're saving for a new car... oooops!"

Got to rush! There's another batch ready to come out of the oven."

Perhaps you, too, earn extra money in your spare time. You'll be pleasantly surprised at just how quickly your dollars will grow in a savings account at The Dominion Bank. While wife and family wave goodbye, a plane carrying Victoria Flying Club's newest student pilot prepares for take-off. In the plane for his first lesson is Cy Porter, of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, who feels that ability to fly is as important as being able to drive a car. Mrs. Porter, Stephanie, two, and Kim, one, cheerfully wave him into the sky. Mr. Porter said he picked the Victoria Flying Club for its "record of safety and efficiency in training pilots." The Chamber hopes to see increased interest in aviation, and more and more prominent visitors viewing the development potential of Vancouver Island from the air. ### Queen, Philip Pay Special Attention to Canadian Group

VALLETTA, Malta (Reuters). Canadians got special attention from Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh during a special Commonwealth memorial service here Monday.

The Queen walked to the ceremony down a "Canadian avenue" of picked RCAF airmen from Canadian bases in Britain, France and Germany.

After Air Commodore Martin Costello placed a wreath for Canada and the RCAF at the unveiling of the Commonwealth air forces memorial here, the Queen paused to chat with Mrs. Annie Lavole and Madeleine Patonau of Montreal.

The Duke then joined in the conversation, and spoke warmly of places he and the Queen had visited during their 1951 tour of Canada.

The royal couple also chatted with Mrs. H. R. Macmillan, wife

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

The Dominion Brewers' Association will meet in Victoria this week.

They couldn't have chosen a more appropriate locale. There is always something brewing in our fair city. Especially tempests in tea-pots.

The Mayor is reported to have said he's against the city continuing as a member of the Union of B.C. Municipalities, and added Victoria is "stuck" with entertaining UBCM delegates this coming fall, "but I hope next year we're out."

Suggested wording for the formal invitation to be extended to the delegates:

THE CITY OF VICTORIA, B.C. regretfully requests the doubtful pleasure of your company at a Convention in the Capital City.

It is sincerely hoped you will enjoy every moment of your stay—but not so much that you'll want to come back again.

Had a little talk with the pup-dog, Judy Boots Streak, last night. The subject under discussion was cruelty to animals.

"What do you think about cruelty to animals?" I asked J.B.

"I am against it," said J.B., with simple dignity. "Which reminds me, how about the bone you promised me if I took my cod liver oil?"

"You haven't taken your cod liver oil," I pointed out. "Nor have you given me the bone," said J.B., who, even at the tender age of four months, is a master of feminine logic.

"Stop changing the subject," I said. "Didn't you know this is Be Kind to Animals Week?"

"As far as I am concerned, every week is Be Kind to Animals Week," said J.B. "I have never been unkind to an animal in my life."

"What about the nip you took out of my ankle yesterday?" I asked.

"Oh, that," shrugged J.B. "It was merely demonstrating affection. Besides, you hardly count as an animal. You have only two legs."

"However," J.B. continued, "this week, I will try to be kind even to you. On one condition."

"Which is?" I asked, rashly.

"That you tell the constituents how easy it is to take out a membership in the Victoria branch of the SPCA."

"What do you know about the SPCA?" I asked.

"I have already met several dogs in the neighborhood who owe a lot to the SPCA," said J.B. "These are dogs who didn't have a home to take care of. The SPCA looked around, and found homes which needed dogs, and introduced the dogs to the homes. And vice versa. And how do you like my vocabulary, for only four months old?"

"I like it fine but you use it too much," I said. "There is too much talk going on around here. Let us just say the Victoria branch of the SPCA is doing a wonderful job, it costs only $1 a year to join, and memberships are available at 111 Wilson Street—or at the T. Eaton Store until Wednesday, and at the Hudson's Bay store Thursday to Saturday."

"Let us just say that," agreed J.B. "Now how about the bone you promised me? Remember—this is . . ."

"I know," I said, heading for the kitchen. "Be Kind to Animals Week."

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

Water will flow again through Saanich mains this evening, maintained by H. D. Dawson, municipal engineer. H. D. Dawson promised at noon today, in a letter to the water system necessitated closing of main valves at 8 a.m. today and subsidiary feeder lines could not meet the demand. By 11 a.m. hundreds of Saanich residents were out of water.

A $50 cheque was stolen when a door in a trailer owned by L. Hunter, 1025 Yates, was forced Monday night.

People who set their watches by the 9:30 curfew are assured of that service until the end of the year.

City council passed Monday an item providing $100 for the curfew signal, sounded by the Phoenix Brewery whistle.

Boy scouts, cub and CGIE groups will receive the proceeds of a variety concert to be presented in the Emmanuel Baptist Church Friday at 8 p.m. Victoria baritone Stanley Martin will be the featured guest star, other artists being symphony orchestra-trumpeter Dr. G. H. E. Green, comedian Rolfe Walsh, Reg Stoffer, magician Ernie Crookford, violinist Eleanor Wilson and dancer Gwen Gille.

Charles Booth won the Dexter Cup for carpet bowling at the final meeting of the season.

FUN WITH FIGURES

By J. A. HUNTER

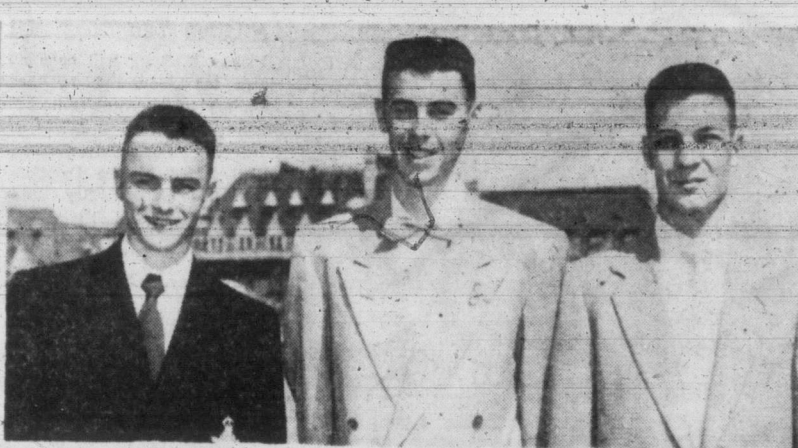

Jill was quite happy, sitting on the floor with the contents of her mother's work-basket strewn around her. "I'm tidying it for you," she said, when her mother warned her not to muss things up. "The buttons bothered her," she wanted to make them up into equal-lots, the same number in each, but it wasn't easy. She had tried them in fours, but there was one too many for that; going to the other extreme she had tried dozens, but had five buttons over that way. "Haven't you got three more buttons somewhere, Mum?" she asked, "then I'll divide them into 10s for you." Jack came in at that moment, and was sent off to find some extra buttons: Jill's mother was sure she'd seen some somewhere. But he soon came back empty-handed saying he'd solve his sister's problem with what she'd got; and he did so. What was the smallest number of buttons which there must have been?

John Claude Wilkie, Saanich, was fined $150 and $6.50 costs in Colwood court Monday when he pleaded guilty to driving while impaired Saturday night. Police told Magistrate A. I. Thomas that Wilkie had driven off the Sooke Road, crossed a residential lawn and finally stopped his car in the back yard after striking a pole. Wilkie and two passengers all were slightly injured.

The accused driver's license will be restricted for business driving only. Wilkie drives a gravel truck.

Victoria and District Cornish Association will meet at the home of Miss L. Hooper, 781 Richmond Road, at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Saturday's Answer: Bob is 13.

TRAMPING WORLD SEA LANES

Ss. Tel Aviv First to Show Israeli Flag in B.C. Waters

The first ship of Israeli registry to enter B.C. waters is working at Ogden Point today.

She is Ss. Tel Aviv, named after her home port, and owned by Cargo Ships Elyam. She is one of three ships operated by the company on the tramping routes of the world.

Her master is Capt. S. Plantenga of Rotterdam, a veteran of many years at sea including war-time service with the Dutch merchant marine. During the Second World War, he lost two ships to enemy action, by torpedo, off the Newfoundland coast, and by mine in European waters.

Tel Aviv has covered half the world in her current search for cargo.

Tel Aviv's present cargo is all B.C. lumber, for U.K. ports, and she will be fully loaded with between 8,000 and 9,000 tons.

Her crew is Hebrew, as are her junior officers, but master and senior officers are Dutch and Italian. Capt. Plantenga reports that Israel's merchant marine, built up in the past five years, now numbered about 40 ships.

Tel Aviv is back in her home waters for the first time since she was launched at Burrard Drydock, Vancouver, in the early '40s. She is a "Fort" class—the Canadian Liberty type.

Capt. S. Plantenga, master of the Israeli freighter, Ss. Tel Aviv, now in port at Ogden Point, doesn't lack for company during the lonely voyages at sea. With him on his present tramping voyage halfway around the world are his wife and their dog, "Kutcha." (Times Photo by Bill Halkett.)

LABOR GROUP BUYING HOME OF OWN HERE

Members of Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council (AFL) are buying "a home of their own."

Council secretary Percy Rayment disclosed today steps have been taken to acquire an old building on the south side of Pandora Avenue near Government Street intersection which will be renovated throughout.

The building formerly was used by Evans, Coleman and Johnson Ltd. for storage.

Mr. Rayment said shares in the building are being made available to union members at the council's present rented offices in the Hamley Building, Government and Broughton.

Appeal Begins On Reid's PO Appointment

Further information required from Victoria forced a postponement in Ottawa Monday of hearing of an appeal launched through local postal union officials against the appointment of Robert F. Reid, Vancouver, to the Victoria postmastership.

Mr. Reid is now acting postmaster. He took over last week on the retirement of Postmaster John B. Sinclair.

Mr. Reid will hold the appointment pending the conclusion of the Ottawa hearing.

Four postal employees are appealing against Reid's appointment. They were unsuccessful candidates.

The board, after hearing initial evidence, decided to write Victoria for additional information. Hearing likely will resume later this week.

The appointment of Mr. Reid has been appealed on the grounds there are employees of the Victoria Post Office qualified to take over as postmaster.

The appeal board is appointed by the Civil Service Commission. It consists of a chairman from the commission, a representative of the Post Office Department and a representative of the Canadian Postal Employees' Association.

Aid to Jobless Demands $2,000 Budget Increase

Welfare Department Estimate Tripled

Increasing unemployment caused City Council to add $2,000 to its 1954 provisional budget this morning.

The council made the addition when considering estimates of its social welfare department.

The budget provided an estimate of $1,000 to cover the cost of assisting unemployed employables, but figures provided by City Comptroller Dennis Young showed already this year $1,972 had been paid out to assist jobless and their families.

Welfare administrator William Hooson acknowledged unemployment was a serious problem and might be heavy again in the latter part of the year. The item was subsequently boosted to $3,000.

Elsewhere during the morning, council trimmed another $3,330 from its budget, effecting a total saving of $1,330. That, added to the $16,654 saving made Monday and the $100,164 reduction made last week, brings the total cut so far to $116,818, worth a little over two mills.

Council cut $1,500 from an appropriation to cover "indigent burials and insane."

Mr. Hooson noted that while the city had been called to bury about 45 persons during the years 1949, '50 and '51, the number had slipped to 27 in '52 and to 12 last year.

Council eliminated $1,000 from the item of supplies for the Aged Men's Home and $630 from the health department budget.

PUBLICITY GRANT

Council gave unanimous approval to continuing annual grants worth $34,535 to aid trade and industry.

The Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau is to receive $32,335 for its tourist promotion efforts, and the Victoria Chamber of Commerce $2,000 for industrial development work.

Two Companies Talk Plan With B.C. Works Minister

Public Works Minister P. A. Gaglardi today expressed hope a final decision soon can be made on establishment of a Gulf Islands ferry service.

This afternoon, Mr. Gaglardi was meeting with Gavin Mowat, representing Gulf Islands Ferry Company, and Col. George Paulin, representing Black Ball Lines.

Purpose of the meeting is to analyze a traffic survey sponsored by Black Ball in an effort to work out a solution for the Islands' "isolation" problem.

The survey indicates such a service could be made to pay after a few years of initial operation at a loss.

Two possible solutions are thought to be under consideration:

1. A short-term "diminishing" government subsidy to get the service on its feet.

2. Operation by a private company, willing and able to take a loss for two or three years in the anticipation of future profitable operation.

LONG-TERM ARRANGEMENT

Black Ball Lines has never accepted government subsidy in the past, and it is still against company policy to accept subsidies. But the firm might consider a Gulf Islands service on a long-term basis.

Decision to do so would depend on action by the Black Ball board of directors.

It is believed Gulf Islands Ferries would be willing to operate under government subsidy.

Reason for the Black Ball-financed survey and today's meeting is the agitation felt by Gulf Islands residents over the diminished service.

Present costs for a trip from North Pender Island to Shoal Harbor by chartered launch is $8 one way.

Death of Ballet Here Seen by Kiwanis Club

The heavy curtains of the Royal Theatre will close Thursday night on what is probably the last top-flight ballet company to appear in Victoria for years.

Royal Winnipeg Ballet will appear Wednesday and Thursday under Kiwanis Club sponsorship, and Ed Mallek, a member of the committee in charge, said today the visit "is definitely the last."

Mr. Mallek said ballet in Canada is coming of age, "is maturing" and for that reason, smaller centres such as Victoria will be "left out in the cold."

With the maturity, ballet companies are dropping two piano and recording accompaniment, and attaching traveling

ASK THE TIMES

Q. What was the first year daylight saving was observed in Victoria? Was it not the rule in the city before it was in Saanich, Esquimalt and Oak Bay? G.E.F.

A. Daylight saving came to Victoria first in 1918, the final year of the First Great War.

There had been some cities in eastern Canada which had tried the plan before then, but in 1918, in order to save electricity for war munitions and shipbuilding purposes and to lengthen the hours of output daily, the federal government by order-in-council enforced daylight time from coast to coast.

Thus it became a rule simultaneously in Victoria and the contiguous municipalities. In 1919, the Ottawa government dropped out of the field, which was controversial, and the problem went to the municipalities across Canada.

There were city-by-laws here in 1921, 1922 and 1923. At times there were see-saws between the province and municipalities on the issue.

The provincial law which governs the time question now is Chapter 91 of the Revised Statutes 1948. Under it the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council keeps uniformity among the cities and districts of the province each year by setting the dates of the beginning and the ending of daylight saving.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to The Times, addressed to "Ask The Times." Editor. Questions and answers will be published daily. All questions should deal with matters of fact and be of general interest. The Times does not undertake to solve conundrums.

DAILY GARDEN HINT

Get Cracking With That Hoe; Keep It Up

"Keep the hoe moving in the flower borders and vegetable rows." Sage advice, found in all gardening calendars for May.

It is not until one starts hoeing that its benefits become apparent. At the weekend, when it seemed as though rain would fall at any moment, I started hoeing. Some parts of the flower border which had not been cultivated since early February, were beginning to crack. This is a habit of heavy soils, but with the early addition of humus the cracking is less severe. Frequent hoeing will allow moisture to penetrate, admit air, and conserve moisture within the soil.

Removing weed seedlings at the same time contributes to the appearance of general well being of the cultivated plants though weeds in themselves are not detrimental, only inasmuch as they compete for the food and moisture in the soil.

The most vivid example of the benefits of cultivating by hoe, I saw some years ago on farm number two of the George Robinson Seed Farms at Keating. Acres of flowers were being grown for seed without irrigation of any kind. Natural moisture was being conserved in the soil by constant cultivation. The dust mulch created was several inches thick, and below that where the plant roots were living, the soil was quite moist. The time of year was mid-August, during one of our typical rainless summers. The results were right there for all to see.

While many of our garden plants do better with a more abundant supply of water, the lesson has remained with me.

SHOPPING GUIDE

New Kitchen Dinnerware Will Withstand Oven Heat

By PENNY SAVER

Imagine owning kitchen dishes that will withstand an oven temperature of 500 degrees without showing the slightest crack!

Well you don't have to imagine it, for you really can own such a set. I'm all hepped up about it, for I think that this is a great advancement in dinnerware—and a great saving to you, the customer!

Never heard of such hardy dishes... yet they're here in Victoria for us to buy at just $7.95 for a 20-piece set of four-place settings.

Not only do these pieces stand up to heat, but they'll take a great beating before they'll break! Why, drop 'em on the floor, crack 'em against the kitchen tap, do almost anything with 'em and they'll still be good as new.

You know, it's a fact that you can hammer a two or three-inch nail into a piece of two by four with one of the cups! Imagine...

And as for the breaking of handles, why, the cup is made in one piece, thus being unusually strong.

Golly, if I use too many such adjectives as "hardy" and "strong," I'll have you thinking these dishes are clumsy, logger-type pieces, when really they are most attractive.

The beautiful colors which you may mix or match are coral, lime green, dove grey and turquoise blue, and the pieces (which, incidentally may be bought open stock), are cups and saucers, plates, cereal dishes and bread and butters.

Studies Show Vitamin C Vital; Also Often Deficient

The role of vitamin C is becoming increasingly more important as research uncovers its part in nutrition and health.

At a recent meeting in Florida Dr. Carl T. Javert of Cornell University Medical College reported some interesting facts concerning a study of 2,000 women who had lost one or more babies.

Dr. Javert said, "A tendency to bleed too easily, common among the nearly 2,000 women, provided the clue to the vitamin C lack. A distinct correlation between vitamin C deficiency and hemorrhage was found."

If you are expecting a baby be sure that you get a larger than usual quota of this vitamin. The best source is your citrus fruits and citrus fruit juices. It seems now in light of recent studies that the daily requirement of vitamin C in pregnancy may be in excess of that which has been accepted in the past.

Even in women who have normal pregnancies it has been discovered that the vitamin C concentration in blood plasma falls off 29 per cent of its usual level by the time the baby arrives unless, vitamin C therapy is adopted.

If you bruise too easily this may be due to a deficiency in this vitamin. The correlation between fragility of the capillaries and this lack has long been recognized.

At this same meeting Dr. Paul Beery Mack, nutritionist and dean of Texas State College for Women, had some interesting findings to say. She reported the findings of a survey of the food intake of more than 2,000 children and teenagers and more than 2,000 adults.

The 13 and 14-year-olds were the worst, so far as vitamin C intake was concerned. Older teenagers made a better showing, but not much better. Boys and young men showed up worse than girls and young women of the same age. Women and girls are apt to eat more salads and citrus fruits.

The adult group was far from ideal in vitamin C consumption. Teen-agers have great dietary needs. Just when they need more food and especially more of the right kind of food, they have less supervision and eat more meals away from home and do more of between meal snacking.

Lack of vitamin C is not only one of the causes of fatigue but is definitely connected with the health of the blood vessels. Bleeding gums may sometimes be due to this deficiency. Also, the need for a high vitamin C intake in older people has been demonstrated.

So look to your citrus fruits and citrus fruit juices. This is one dietary measure which it is so easy to fulfill and yet is so often neglected.

Widower Should Find New Wife With Ease

By ELIZABETH B. HURLOCK, PhD

A widower in the prime of life has no need to be lonely. He can easily solve his problem if he takes action. A man writes:

(Q) "I am 55 years old, in good health, and don't look or act my age. My wife died 15 months ago and I have been very particular up to now about going out with ladies out of respect for my wife. But I am very lonely and would like female companionship. I own my own home, have some property, drive a good car, and dress well. I don't like to go to the minister at the church where I go for he will not want to help me as I am not a member of his church. I would not join the church with that in view. I would greatly appreciate your advice."

(A) I strongly advise you to go to the minister. I am positive that it would not make the slightest difference to him if you were a member of his church or not.

A minister does not discriminate against those who do not belong to his church. He is available to help all who come to him, regardless of their religious affiliations. Therefore, you have no reason to hesitate. If at some later date you want to join that church, that is another matter.

Why not make a point of dropping in to see your wife's old friends and their husbands? You could tell them, indirectly, and tactfully in your conversation, how lonely you have been since your wife's death. I can almost guarantee that it will be only a short time before they start to matchmake.

I am sure your wife would be the last person in the world to want you to be lonely. You have waited quite long enough to fill the gap in your life. Now is the time to take action and see if you can find someone who will end your days of loneliness. Good luck to you in your search.

Bonicia Stoba, R.W. Harbidge Wed At Ceremony in Church of Our Lord

Church of Our Lord was scene of an attractive Saturday evening wedding, when Bonicia Bryant Stoba, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Stoba, 1625 Hollywood Crescent, and the late William N. Stoba, repeated vows with Robert William Harbidge, RCAF Station, Sea Island, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harbidge, Banff, Alta.

Pink carnations and mauve stocks in baskets decorated the church for the service performed by Rev. J. G. Brown. Guest pews were marked with clusters of carnations. As the register was being signed Mrs. J. M. Hunt sang "Thy Walk Beside Me." George Lupu gave the bride in marriage.

A gown of white lace over tulle was worn by the bride. The neckline was sweetheart-shaped with not yoke and the skirt featured a panel of sunburst pleats on either side of the centre front panel. The flowing skirt was slightly in train. Her full-length veil of scalloped illusion net was caught to the head.

Non-Legion Veterans Shirk Responsibility

By ROY THORSEN

I've been a shirker! This was brought home to me rather forcibly Monday while chatting with Lieut. Col. Eric Parker, secretary of the Britannia Branch of the Canadian Legion.

I am not a member of the Canadian Legion; in other words, I haven't been playing the game with the great organization we of the Second World War owe so much. This confession comes because I failed to renew my overseas membership. I will correct this unpardonable error immediately.

Col. Parker tolled me with the news of the volume of company I have across Canada. Not more than 25 per cent of ex-servicemen and women in the Dominion wear the legion button.

PROVED STRENGTH

Non-members should be ashamed. We all know the giant strength the legion was in pressing for legislation that gave the veterans such a good deal when they returned to civvy street in 1945-46... and will rely on much for our welfare in the years to come.

"And the government is well acquainted with this partial enrolment in a possible strength three times greater," the colonel said. "and uses it as evidenced by the prime minister's statement last Friday that he does not intend to ask Parliament to increase war veterans' allowances this session."

"We need a lot more branches and a great many more members, because there is still a lot to do in persuading the government to improve the lot for disabled veterans and the older men who are unable to make a living working," he said.

The same big problem faced the British Legion, he added.

BIG DRIVE NEEDED

He quoted the past president of the British organization as saying at a recent rally that "if we could tell Parliament that close to 100 per cent of ex-service personnel belong to the legion, the disabled pensions in England would have been increased nine years ago."

How about a big drive here to catch up with a lot more shirkers like myself to join the legion, which is, in effect, the veterans' breadbasket of tomorrow.

Both he and Clem A. Gill, secretary of the Pro Patria Branch of the Canadian Legion, said that a rumor that the Britannia and Pro Pats were investigating the possibility of a merger on "economy grounds" was totally unfounded. Both said their branches were on a sound financial footing, owed nobody and had no worries. I can imagine the great protest that would go up if such a move were ever attempted. Members of the various units are proud and jealous of their own branch records.

SAFETY SILK

Surgeons use silk for sewing up wounds; mountain climbers for their lifelines; aviators for their parachutes and for the suspension cords of their harness; fishermen for their strongest lines, and artists as powder casing for great cannon.

A NEW Savings PLAN for BUSINESS GIRLS

- ★ DURING FIRST TWENTY YEARS—policy is identical with the traditional Twenty-Year Endowment—full amount available in cash at end of twenty years, or full amount payable if death occurs before then.
- ★ AT END OF TWENTY YEARS, HOWEVER—if the assured so desires, she may choose to keep on paying the same premium each year as she did during the original twenty-year period!
- ★ IF SHE KEEPS ON SAVING UNTIL 55 OR 60—she can convert the greatly increased cash value into an Annuity which is either payable as long as she lives or until Age 70 (when old-age security "pension" begins) depending upon her choice.
- ★ IF SHE DOES NOT LIVE TO AGE 60—(in case fatal illness or accident strikes after original twenty years) then her husband or family will receive an amount substantially close to the primary face amount plus accumulated interest plus the Premiums continued after the original period with interest added.
- ★ BUT IF SHE DOES LIVE—this ever-increasing amount builds up a greater feeling of financial independence in event of sudden emergency, in addition to providing an ever-increasing sense of security about income for the years after Age 55 or 60!

- ★ AND PROFITS, TOO!... Over and above all the benefits guaranteed in the contract—she will receive her share of the surplus earnings throughout the entire period...

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UP)—Several shoppers were sent to first aid stations and extra police had to be called to restore order at a sale featuring $75 power lawn mowers for 99 cents and 29-cent-a-pound coffee.

4 of U.S. Red Underground Jailed for Aiding 'Big-Wigs'

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Four members of the American Communist underground were sentenced to prison terms ranging from one to three years today for conspiracy to harbor fugitive Red big-wig Robert Thompson in a high Sierra hideout.

The four, who were arrested when the FBI trapped Thompson in the Twain Harte, Calif., summer cabin last August, were convicted by a Federal Court jury last Monday.

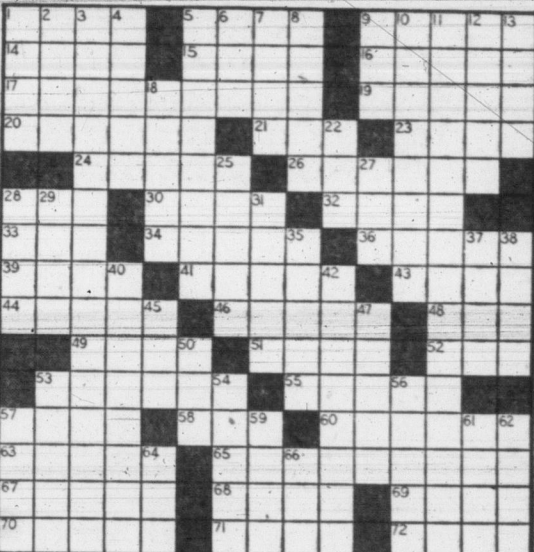

Sidney Steinberg, 38, of New York, himself a fugitive from a Smith Act indictment as one of the nation's "second string" Communist leaders, was sentenced to three years by Federal Judge Louis E. Goodman.

Samuel Coleman, 42, New York party leader, was sentenced to three years; Carl Ross, 46, former Minnesota Communist official, was sentenced to two years, and Mrs. Shirley Keith Kremen, 21-year-old former Los Angeles student leader, was sentenced to one year.

Judge Goodman said he gave Mrs. Kremen the lighter sentence because of her youth and the fact she was "to some extent" under the influence of the

Canada No Mere Replica of U.S. Vincent Massey Tells Congress

WASHINGTON (BUP) — Following is the partial text of Governor-General Vincent Massey's speech to Congress today.

On an occasion such as this, made possible by your graceful hospitality, one is reminded of all that our Commonwealth owes to you, and, indeed, has owed ever since you established your free republic here on this continent. The principles enshrined in your Declaration of Independence and in your Constitution were a challenge to the British peoples in the 18th century, and since, to seek out the sources of their ancient freedom—sources from which we all have fed. Thus, you helped us to cultivate our own institutions under the crown, which to us is a symbol of freedom and duty. We are grateful to you for aiding us in the Commonwealth to preserve and enrich our own way of life.

GOV. GEN. MASSEY

unworthy of inspection. I invite you to come and see us.

I have talked about ourselves as your neighbors. I have said little about ourselves as your partners. You and we work together in the international community. Along with kinsmen and friends across the seas, we are allies in defense in the things we value. And, if I may say so, I think that we in Canada, like you, have given proof that those values must be actively and zealously defended. In the far north we are working with you to strengthen the defenses of this continent on our territory and on yours. In Korea there has been, from an early stage, a brigade group of Canadian troops. They are now standing guard against the possibility of renewed attack. Twelve squadrons of the Royal Canadian Air Force and a further Canadian brigade group are stationed in Europe. Such formations, I need hardly say, should naturally be related to our minds to the size of the population which provides them.

Share Dislike for Regimentation

To say that you in the United States and we in Canada have much in common, is a venerable platitude. Living as we do side by side on the same continent, our resemblances are many. We have too, similar views on fundamental things. Among our common characteristics, one of the greatest, I believe, is our dislike for regimentation—our respect for the differences which lend color to everyday existence. We believe that each man should lead his own life; that each group of men should preserve its own customs. It is not surprising, therefore, that for all that we have in common, you and we should each preserve certain habits and traditions which we cherish because they belong to us. We know it is not your wish to have on your borders a mere replica of your own country, but rather a self-respecting community faithful to its own ways. We are thus better neighbors, because self-respect is the key to respect for others. On our side of the border you will find a country in which parliamentary government has been, we believe, successfully married to a federal system; a country whose people cherish two languages and two cultures—English and French; a land which has inherited from its mother countries in the old world many forms and customs which have been happily fitted into life in the new. These ways of ours you respect because they are ours, just as we respect your ways because they are yours. Thus, in the words of the "treaty of amity, commerce and navigation," which laid the foundation of our present concord as long as 1794, we "promote a disposition favorable to friendship and good neighborhood."

For Our Growth—Sober Adjectives

In Canada we are indeed fortunate in our neighborhood. We have a warm-hearted neighbor. This your people have shown us over the years. There are countless bodies in this country in which, through your invitations, Canadians share membership with their American friends. We are not unmindful of what we owe to your great universities and towns. Let me say, too, that we are ever conscious of the warmth of the hospitality we receive when we are your guests.

We have a powerful neighbor. Your massive strength, economic and military, excites a sense of wonder at its magnitude. The dedication of this power to the cause of freedom evokes the gratitude of all who love freedom everywhere. Your Canadian neighbors know that when you assumed the grave responsibilities you bear today, it was not of your choosing. And for what you have done, we honor you.

We have a friendly neighbor. There is no need to enlarge on the traditions of neighborly good sense which for so long have marked our relations. We can only hope that they may be reflected elsewhere in this troubled world.

We are happy to think that we know you well. Countless Canadians have personal friends on this side of the border. Many of us have relatives here. It is, of course, natural that a small community should know more of a larger neighbor than that neighbor knows of it. We are getting to know each other better as the years pass.

We welcome your visits to us. Often your objective may be the river or the forest, and we are happy to offer you a playground. But perhaps you will let me say that we would not next to nothing

We wonder how much finer you can get than the aluminum wire used in delicate apparatus which records the earth's tremors. Drawn out almost to the vanishing point, it is about one-twelfth the diameter of a human hair. One pound of aluminum would make enough of this unbelievably fine wire to stretch 20,000 miles!

We know no more striking example of the way people make use of the lightness and strength of aluminum for all sorts of jobs. Our research and technical men are constantly tackling new questions brought to them by Canadian manufacturers who look to aluminum in developing new products, or better products, or products that cost less. ## EDGELOW SUGGESTS TAXIS TRANSPORT CITY WORKERS

A suggestion that taxi companies be invited to tender on the job of transporting city employees about the city, instead of paying the employees 10 cents a mile to use their own cars, was made by Ald. Geoffrey Edgelow at a City Council meeting Monday night.

The aldermen expressed concern at the amount paid out for transportation allowances, and noted that in some departments transportation costs equalled 10 per cent of the wages.

He said salaries for eight inspectors (building, plumbing, electrical and smoke), came to $36,457, while their car allowances totalled $4,680.

"It would seem that on many occasions our inspectors could take the bus," he said. "There is good bus service to all parts of the city."

Ald. Brent Murdoch termed the idea "ridiculous." The suggestion of using taxis on a contract basis was offered as an alternative.

Possible successor to the late Angus L. Macdonald as premier of Nova Scotia is Federal Works Minister Robert Winters, above. Mr. Winters, 43, has been urged to stand for election as the new Liberal leader of the province, according to the Ottawa Journal, but has given no hint of his decision.

No Clemency for Writer Of Death Cell Biography

SACRAMENTO (UP) — Gov. Goodwin J. Knight Monday refused executive clemency for convicted author Caryl Chessman, condemned San Quentin prisoner whose recently-published autobiography is being hailed by critics as the "most astounding" book of the year.

California's governor said he had reviewed the file on Chessman's case and "found no grounds for a reprieve or commutation of sentence" despite the man's prison-born success as a writer.

The 32-year-old convict is slated to die in San Quentin's lethal gas chamber on May 14 for a series of Southern California lover's lane kidnappings, robberies and attempted rape. He is the first man sentenced to die under the state's "Little Lindbergh Law" for kidnapping with bodily harm.

(In San Quentin, prison authorities said Chessman took the news of the governor's action "without emotion.")

"He was typing in his cell when he received the news," the warden's office said. "He took it very calmly and made no comment. He just went on typing."

Chessman's autobiography, entitled "Cell 2455, Death Row," has received enthusiastic reviews from all parts of the nation.

The Saturday Review of Literature said it would be surprising if "a more astounding book were to be published this year."

IN THE COMMONS

Ottawa's Door Open To Quebec on Taxes

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent Monday rejected Opposition proposals for an immediate federal-provincial conference on taxation and constitutional issues.

He also informed the Commons that his government's door is open for Premier Duplessis of Quebec to discuss a solution to the problem of that province's new 15-per-cent income tax.

William Hamilton, PC-Montreal Notre-Dame-de-Grace, said the government should go further than leaving the door open. It should indicate the type of "reception that will be found by those who go through that door." Quebec was particularly affected by the taxation problem at the moment but it was a national problem affecting all provinces.

"The evasion of the issue by not calling a federal-provincial conference is merely postponing the difficulty," he said.

Mr. St. Laurent, entering the budget debate for the first time, repeated his government's decision against allowing full deduction of the provincial tax from federal tax payments. Federal laws permit a deduction of five per cent.

He said he knows of no alternative solution to double taxation except the federal-provincial tax agreements, which have been signed by all provinces except Quebec.

The federal government was ready to discuss any Quebec proposal for an alternative to a tax agreement, provided it

What's news at Inco?

Inco makes worthless ore pay off

IN Inco's Creighton mine, there is ore so low in grade that it could not be mined at a profit. In this mine, Inco engineers have adopted a method of mining called "induced caving". In this method, no explosives are required and the ore practically mines itself. So an immense body of ore which was once thought worthless has become a valuable asset to Canada.

RCMP said the crash occurred on a straight stretch of highway about two miles west of here and nine miles east of Prince Rupert.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell and their other two children and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley and James Bolton were taken to hospital, along with occupants of the Waters' car, Bill Becker, 19; Stanley Walker and Melissa Panasuk.

AGASSIZ, B.C. (CP)—A flood-emergency by-law is to be rushed through municipal council here to deal with the threat of the Fraser River going on the rampage.

Other Fraser Valley communities are taking similar action. Ratepayers at Matsqui meet Thursday to set up an emergency committee and appoint dike patrols.

The action will coincide with plans by the provincial dike commission and civil defense groups in nine Fraser Valley centres.

At Agassiz, authorities say the dikes are "really solid" except for a 3½-mile stretch on both sides of the Rosedale ferry landing. At that point the height of the dike is reported to be a foot below specifications.

Mayor Overridden on Capital-Plan Aid

City Council has approved appropriations of $8,300 for planning services this year. Council agreed to make $4,000 available for the newly created Capital City Regional Planning Board, and $3,400 for its own Town Planning Commission.

The mayor and Ald. Robert Macmillan voted against the $4,900 expenditure. The Capital Regional Board is to plan the Greater Victoria area. The provincial government earlier contributed $10,000 and asked the municipalities to provide the same.

Yanks Cheer Massey

Standing Ovation
For Gov.-General

WASHINGTON (CP)—A standing ovation from members of both Houses of Congress greeted Canada's governor-general today as he told a joint session of the two Houses the United States can depend on Canadians as faithful friends and comrades.

In the first address delivered by a Canadian governor-general in the legislative chamber in 17 years Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey was interrupted eight times by applause as he assured the senators and congressmen that there is no difference in the fundamental aims of Canada and the United States, though they may occasionally differ on details.

Mr. Massey said Canada believes as the United States does "that the problems of our time cannot be solved by military strength alone."

INFINITE PATIENCE

"The line can be held only by the deployment of force but the objective—peace—can be won only by the quality of infinite patience. In our collaboration, we may not always agree on every detail of the plans we must discuss together but there is no difference between us on the fundamental aims which we pursue; we may differ now and then on the 'hows' but never on the 'whys.'" (See page 25 for partial text of Governor-General's speech.)

The governor-general was escorted into the House of Representatives by a committee of both Houses and was welcomed at the rostrum by Speaker Joseph Martin (Rep.-Mass.) of the House and Vice-President Nixon, Speaker of the Senate. The chamber was well filled with congressmen, senators and members of the cabinet and of the Supreme Court.

In his brief introductory remarks, Martin described his guest as "the governor-general of a great people—a people friendly to us."

PLACES WREATH

Before his visit to the House, the governor-general drove to Mount Vernon to place a wreath at the tomb of George Washington and to Arlington Cemetery, where he placed wreaths at the tomb of the unknown soldier and the Canadian memorial cross, commemorating Americans who fell while fighting in the Canadian forces during the First World War.

The governor-general was present at the dedication of the memorial cross in the late 1920s, while he was serving as Canada's first minister in Washington.

Canada Will Have Atomic Power Plant Within 10 Years

EDMONTON (CP)—One of Canada's nuclear authorities says it is hoped this country will have its first atomic power plant within the next eight or 10 years.

Dr. David A. Keys, vice-president of the National Research Council of Canada and scientific adviser to the president of Atomic Energy of Canada, Ltd., said in an interview Monday it is hoped to have a pilot atomic plant but this has not yet been authorized by the federal government.

He said a small plant would cost about $10,000,000 and would probably have a capacity of 2,000 watts. It would probably be near the Chalk River, Ont., atomic reactor.

OAKALLA ESCAPEE HUNTED ALL NIGHT

Exhausted 'Potential Murderer' Surrenders From Burnaby Bush

VANCOUVER (CP)—A shot, punctured, all-night chase through bushlands ended today with the recapture of Lawrence Corbett, escaped prisoner.

The 18-year-old gunman, branded in court as a "potential murderer," escaped from Oakalla prison farm in suburban Burnaby at 2 p.m. Monday. He had 15 hours' freedom.

Twice during the night as police trailed Corbett through the bush in the eastern section of the city they fired on the fugitive, who disappeared in the darkness.

Surrounded near the home of his grandmother, Corbett surrendered without a fight. He was wet and exhausted when taken from the rain-soaked bush.

Convicted of a series of armed holdups, he was recently sentenced to Oakalla to a term of two years less one day.

Prison officials described him as "emotionally disturbed" after he learned the suspected slayer of his 12-year-old sister was held in Oakalla.

MOUNTIE HQ WON'T MOVE FROM CITY TO MAINLAND

RCMP headquarters will stay in Victoria. Attorney-General Robert Bonner said today that while consideration had been given moving provincial headquarters to Vancouver, the proposal was dropped as his department must have fast and ready access to RCMP files. It was thought originally the RCMP could combat crime more effectively if centrally located on the lower mainland.

Man Who Drowned in Strait Identified; Name Withheld

A man who drowned off a Dallas Road beach Monday has been identified by city police as an eastern Canadian, who has been unemployed here for five months.

Relatives have been notified, but until an acknowledgment is received here, the name will not be released. This may take "a couple of days," according to Police Chief John Blackstock.

The man, who is 25, slightly built and dark haired, drowned before the eyes of Mrs. W. J. MacKenzie, 654 Dallas, while she was watching through field glasses for birds.

RCMP have abandoned search operations due to heavy deposits of seaweed which blinded navy frogmen and fouled draglines. The divers believe the body may never be found if it is trapped in the heavy weeds.

Mrs. MacKenzie called police after she saw a man swimming between two rocky islands just below the Paddon Street intersection with Douglas. She said the man, clad only in shorts had appeared to be trying to reach the outermost island. He started, turned back, halfway, then sank. City police checked the area.

NEW KOREA PROPOSAL TO BE OFFERED BY WEST

(From AP and UP Dispatches)

GENEVA—The 16 countries which fought in Korea under the United Nations banner plan to put a compromise proposal on Korea before the Communists this week, a highly informed source said today.

This source said the compromise plan, its details were not given, would be a "very difficult thing" for Russia, Red China and North Korea to turn down.

The Communist reaction to the compromise, it was said, will determine whether there is any real chance of unifying Korea and holding elections in the war-battered peninsula.

Meanwhile a five-man Communist Viet Minh delegation arrived by air to take part in the Indo-China phase of the conference.

The conference recessed today for two days.

Risking recurrences of the Yates Street firehall controversy—a bitter debate for months in 1952—City Council Monday night over-rode Fire Chief Briers and ordered a mandatory reduction in fire department's 1954 budget. Alternatives offered were: Close one of the city's three firehalls or cut fire-fighting staffs.

'RIFT' REPORT MUST WAIT—CHURCHILL

Reds Grab Another Strongpoint

HANOI (AP)—Renewing their massive infantry assault on Dien Bien Phu, the Communist-led Viet Minh captured a new French strongpoint today on the western side of the besieged northwest Indo-China fortress.

A French high command announcement here said the battered French Union defenders inside the crumbling defenses immediately launched a strong counter-attack.

"Bitter combat now is under way," the communique said.

DENIES REPORT

A message from AP correspondent Larry Allen reported a denial from French spokesmen that surrender of the Dien Bien Phu garrison had been demanded by the Viet Minh. In the same vein, the New York Times correspondent at Hanoi said: "It was said that no true negotiations were taking place with the Viet Minh in Indo-China and that Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap had not demanded the surrender of Dien Bien Phu."

Man Held in Murder

VANCOUVER (BUP)—Police held a 28-year-old German immigrant today in connection with the death of an elderly man in a Main Street hotel Monday night. The elderly man was identified as Loughie McKinnon but police withheld the name of the immigrant.

TACOMA OFFERS $100,000 FOR WIL BERTH, SAYS PAPER

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Vancouver News-Herald, in a sports page story today, said Tacoma baseball interests were willing to put up $100,000 to take over the orphan Calgary Western International League baseball franchise. The story said the money was promised by Columbia Breweries and would be devoted to purchase of the franchise and other costs to carry on the 1954 Calgary schedule. Calgary is dropping from the 10-team league due to lack of funds.

Formal presentation of the offer, however, would have to await the return of baseball park owner Ben Cheney from a Mexican vacation, the story said.

Talk o' cuttin' down on th' firemen allus seems t' warm things up. Somebody should remind th' mayor that with th' new likker arrangements here nobody'll hev t' go t' Harrison Hot Springs anymore. Don't seem clear whether Mr. Dulles left Geneva fer good or jus' went home fer more ammunition.

Defends UN Policy At Geneva Parley

GENEVA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada today warned the Geneva conference that failure of peace moves in Indo-China may lead the West to consider further collective security measures.

Pearson, providing Canada's first contribution to the general debate on Korea, made a spirited defense of United Nations policy regarding that war-torn peninsula, criticized Communist proposals for a peaceful settlement there and referred briefly to negotiations concerning Indo-China.

At the end of his speech, he referred to the interest expressed by Asian countries which have just met at Colombo in ensuring peace in Indo-China. He added: "If these peaceful purposes are not achieved by a just, honorable and negotiated settlement, the consequences will be bad, and probably far-reaching. Failure here may well necessitate further collective consideration by those who, as a result of such failure, will feel increasingly threatened of further ways and means to meet that threat. This, in its turn, may harden and make more dangerous the great tragic division in the world. . . . The reward for success at Geneva will be great in terms of peaceful progress; but the penalty of failure may be even greater in terms of increasing tensions and the risk of war which would engulf and destroy us all."

Terms Proposal Unfair, Unworkable

The reference to "further collective consideration" almost certainly means that western countries, including Canada, will reconsider their position if negotiations over Indo-China and Korea break down through Communist intransigence.

Discussing Communist proposals on Korea, Pearson made these points: 1. The proposed all-Korean commission suggested by North Korea's foreign minister, Nam Il, would be "completely unworkable, unfair and unacceptable."

2. The proposal by Communist China's Chou En-lai for a commission to bring about repatriation of Chinese and Korean prisoners of war who refused to go home would "serve no useful purpose." This was a dead issue.

3. Chou En-lai's insistence that all foreign military bases in Asian countries should be removed was interesting. "It would be interesting to know," Pearson said, "whether he includes in this sweeping generalization the Russians in Port Arthur."

Pearson, criticizing aspects of the plan advanced here last week by Gen. Nam Il, the North Korean foreign minister, said: "My delegation is not alone in the suspicion that they include words and phrases designed to camouflage a scheme which would bring to Korea the reverse of freedom and independence."

Nam's plan provided for establishment by the North and South Korean governments of a joint commission to plan elections throughout the country. Backing all United Nations decisions on Korea, Pearson told today's conference plenary session in the Palace of Nations: "The Canadian government has supported, and remains bound by, these United Nations decisions."

NO SUPPORT "Therefore, we cannot support any proposal which denies their validity, or which would equate at this conference the moral and political status of the United Nations in respect of the Korean question, with those governments which have broken the United Nations charter by taking aggressive military acts against the Republic of Korea."

Pearson strongly defended the United States against allegations of "aggressive imperialism" made at this conference by Russia and Communist China.

"As the leader of the delegation of a country which is a neighbor of the most powerful state in the world, I can say with a conviction based on our national experience that the people of the United States are neither aggressive nor imperialist."

CHARLES... perfect gentleman.

TREATS SISTER LIKE QUEEN

Royal Tots Steal Show At Malta Appearance

VALETTA, Malta (UP)—Prince Charles and Princess Anne stole the show today in their first participation in Royal ceremonies during their mother's world tour.

The five-year-old boy who will some day be king of Britain showed his manners in escorting his three-year-old sister as if she were a queen. He carefully stood back to let his sister disembark first when a barge brought them ashore from the Royal yacht Britannia.

Then walking down steps Charles protectively took the uncertain Anne's arm and even helped her climb into the governor's car.

But the prince was not so grown up that he failed to catch the comedy of a lonesome dog's romp across the parade ground where his mother, Queen Elizabeth II, reviewed troops.

Fortified by a jug of lemonade and a plateful of cookies, the children perched on a balcony of the Phoenix Hotel and literally presided over a parade honoring the Queen on Floriana parade grounds.

Thirty thousand persons who turned out to cheer on the second day of the Queen's visit to this island bastion cheered the children as well as their mother.

Vancouver Brewer Leaves $4,000,000

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two Vancouver business leaders who died recently left estates totalling more than $7,000,000. Robert W. Fiddes, pioneer brewer and hotelman, is reported to have left holdings valued at $3,000,000 in Canada and $1,000,000 in the United States.

Edward Blake Ballentine, lumber magnate, left an estate with a gross value of $3,378,148. His principal heir is a son, 28-year-old Patrick Ballentine, an advertising agency executive now living in Toronto.

Psychiatrist to Examine Valdmanis

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Dr. Alfred Valdmanis, charged with fraud totalling $420,000, appeared in magistrate's court today and was remanded to Thursday for examination by a psychiatrist.

Magistrate Hugh O'Neill suggested the examination and Solicitor-General Myles Murray agreed.

Gordon Higgins, counsel for the former chief of Newfoundland's economic development program who was arrested in New Brunswick two weeks ago, agreed after a five-minute recess.

Man Who Drowned in Strait Identified; Name Withheld

A man who drowned off a Dallas Road beach Monday has been identified by city police as an eastern Canadian, who has been unemployed here for five months.

Relatives have been notified, but until an acknowledgment is received here, the name will not be released. This may take a couple of days, according to Police Chief John Blackstock.

The man, who is 25, slightly built and dark haired, drowned before the eyes of Mrs. W. J.

MacKenzie, 654 Dallas, while she was watching through field glasses for birds.

RCMP have abandoned search operations due to heavy deposits of seaweed which blinded navy frogmen and fouled draglines. The divers believe the body may never be found if it is trapped in the heavy weeds.

City police checked the area and found clothing nearby. A laundry mark on a shirt led police to identification.

MasseyStanding Ovation
For Gov.-General

WASHINGTON (CP)—A standing ovation from members of both Houses of Congress greeted Canada's governor-general today as he told a joint session of the two Houses the United States can depend on Canadians as faithful friends and comrades.

In the first address delivered by a Canadian governor-general in the legislative chamber in 17 years, Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey was interrupted eight times by applause as he assured the senators and congressmen that there is no difference in the fundamental aims of Canada and the United States, though

'Cut—Or Close'
Fire Chief Told

James Bay Hall May Be Closed Down;
Police Chief Also Told to Cut Staff

Risking recurrences of the Yates Street firehall controversy—a bitter debate for months in 1952—City Council Monday night over-rode Fire Chief Briers and ordered a mandatory reduction in fire department's 1954 budget. Alternatives offered were: Close one of the city's three firehalls or cut fire-fighting staffs.

Also sent back for downward revision involving reduction in force numbers, were police department estimates filed by Chief John Blackstock.

Both cuts are designed to hold the line on fire and police outlays while, at the same time, absorbing nearly $28,000 in extra wages ordered by a conciliation board.

Fire Chief Frank Briers was ordered to revise his 80-man department so as to absorb $13,295 in increased wages. The police department's provisional budget must be similarly cut $14,455.

The mayor's suggestion on to hold the line on fire department budget was to close one of the district fire halls. He mentioned James Bay, which was built in the fall of 1952.

Reds Grab
Another
Strongpoint

HANOI (AP)—Renewing their massive infantry assault on Dien Bien Phu, the Communist-led Viet Minh captured a new French strongpoint today on the western side of the besieged northwest Indo-China fortress.

A French high command announcement here said the battered French Union defenders inside the crumbling defenses immediately launched a strong counter-attack.

"Bitter combat now is under way," the communique said.

Talk o' cuttin' down on th' firemen allus seems t' warm things up.

Somebody should remind th' mayor thet with th' new likker arrangements here nobody'll hev t' go t' Harrison Hot Springs anymore.

Don't seem clear whether Mr. Duiles left Geneva fer good or jus' went home fer more ammunition.

Minister Makes Spirited
Defense of UN Policies

GENEVA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada today warned the Geneva conference that failure of peace moves in Indo-China may lead the West to consider further collective security measures.

Pearson, providing Canada's first contribution to the general debate on Korea, made a spirited defense of United Nations policy regarding that war-torn peninsula, criticized Communist proposals for a peaceful settlement there and referred briefly to negotiations concerning Indo-China.

At the end of his speech, he referred to the interest expressed by Asian countries which have just met at Colombo in ensuring peace in Indo-China. He added:

"If these peaceful purposes are not achieved by a just, honorable and negotiated settlement, the consequences will be bad, and probably far-reaching. Failure here may well necessitate further collective consideration by those who, as a result of such failure, will feel increasingly threatened, of further ways and means to meet that threat. This, in its turn, may harden and make more dangerous the great tragic division in the world. . . . The reward for success at Geneva will be great in terms of peaceful progress; but the penalty of failure may be even greater in terms of increasing tensions and the risk of war which would engulf and destroy us all."

Terms Proposal Unfair, Unworkable

The reference to "further collective consideration" almost certainly means that western countries, including Canada, will reconsider their position if negotiations over Indo-China and Korea break down through Communist intransigence.

Discussing Communist proposals on Korea, Pearson made these points:

1. The proposed all-Korean commission suggested by North Korea's foreign minister, Nam Il, would be "completely unworkable, unfair and unacceptable."

2. The proposal by Communist China's Chou En-lai for a commission to bring about repatriation of Chinese and Korean prisoners of war who refused to go home would "serve no useful purpose." This was a dead issue.

3. Chou En-lai's insistence that all foreign military bases in Asian countries should be removed was interesting. "It would be interesting to know," Pearson said, "whether he includes in this sweeping generalization the Russians in Port Arthur."

Pearson, criticizing aspects of the plan advanced here last week by Gen. Nam Il, the North Korean foreign minister, said: "My delegation is not alone in the suspicion that they include words and phrases designed to camouflage a scheme which

"Therefore, we cannot support any proposal which denies their validity, or which would equate at this conference the moral and political status of the United Nations in respect of the Korean question, with those governments which have broken the United Nations charter by taking aggressive military actions against the Republic of Korea."

Pearson strongly defended the United States against allegations of "aggressive imperialism" made at this conference by Russia and Communist China.

"As the leader of the delegation of a country which is a neighbor of the most powerful state in the world, I can say with a conviction based on our national experience that the people of the United States are neither aggressive nor imperialist."

'Potential Murderer'
Returned to Oakalla

VANCOUVER (CP)—A shot-punctured, all-night chase through bushlands ended today with the recapture of Lawrence Corbett, escaped prisoner.

The 18-year-old gunman, branded in court as a "potential murderer," escaped from Oakalla prison farm in suburban Burnaby at 2 p.m. Monday. He had 15 hours' freedom.

Twice during the night as police trailed Corbett through the bush in the eastern section of the city they fired on the fugitive, who disappeared in the darkness.

Surrounded near the home of his grandmother, Corbett surrendered without a fight. He was wet and exhausted when taken from the rain-soaked bush.

Convicted of a series of armed holdups, he was recently sentenced to Oakalla to a term of two years less one day.

Prison officials described him as "emotionally disturbed" after he learned the suspected slayer of his 12-year-old sister was held in Oakalla.

Donna Lee Corbett was strangled with her own shoe lace near her home in Quessnel, B.C., last September. Lawrence Vincent, 26-year-old carnival worker, is in Oakalla awaiting trial, charged with her murder.

TACOMA OFFERS $100,000
FOR WIL BERTH, SAYS PAPER

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Vancouver News-Herald, in a sports page story today, said Tacoma baseball interests were willing to put up $100,000 to take over the orphan Calgary Western International League baseball franchise.

The story said the money was promised by Columbia Brewery and would be devoted to purchase of the franchise and other costs to carry on the 1954 Calgary schedule.
